Tragic Hero in The Crucible

Arthur Miller's play The Crucible takes place in 1692. The final scene in the play is one of great drama. John Proctor's final act reveals his heroic character. He sacrifices his life for his cause and exhibits such courage and honor that he must be considered a tragic hero.

...goodness, however, he has a tragic flaw. He has had a relationship with Abigail, one of the teenagers in Salem who practices witchcraft. She makes accusations against Proctor's wife, Elizabeth, leading to her arrest as a witch. Proctor is respected in the town but regards himself as a sinner and is unable to resist Abigail. Worse yet, his involvement with her leads to the hysteria that overtakes the town. His weakness leads to his downfall and the destruction of the community.
