Larva High School 3 - Influence and Independence Mia Schmeltzer Beck, Stine Falkenberg Schmidt, 2014-09-22 Part of Jack wanted to turn around and walk away Avoid the confrontation Avoid the pain Another part was screaming that he needed to stay and fight Finally the testosterone in his body took over Elizabeth was his girl and no pretty boy was going to take her away from him He stomped into the restaurant ready for a confrontation What would you do for success and how do you even define it If fame meant being alone in the spotlight would you still choose it Love and hate are not as far apart as you may think and in this last part of the trilogy loyalty and boundaries are being challenged when Sara Josh Victoria and the others are trying to hold on to their friendships and relationships in the midst of calculating media experts and alluring offers from abroad Tolerance for others is great but how about accepting yourself It s not that easy when unwanted desires starts to appear and the plans you had for the future suddenly take a twist that you have no control over I cannot imagine how things could change if EVERY teenager were required to read this trilogy at school I am certain that we would see some positive change Sara Amazing book so full is full of wisdom and humor without being patronizing Lana
