

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

English

Language and Literature Mompoloki Mmangaka Bagwasi,Modupe Moyosore Alimi,Patrick Ebewo,2008 English Language and Literature Cross Cultural Currents is a collection of essays that interrogate the precarious positions of English and African languages in an era in which English is increasingly becoming the dominant language in Africa while at the same time there is a growing resistance against it Though many Africans take pride in their own cultural heritage that is expressed by their African languages they require the economic and social benefits of English The book presents a language dilemma in which both African languages and English enhance inhibit and influence each other The data used by the authors spans a broad spectrum of sources including fiction courts parliamentary Hansards House of Chiefs classrooms internet roads and bus ranks Thus it is reflective of the most and least educated the most and least influential Africans The presentations provide broad insights about African symbols metaphors imagery and folklores representing undocumented literature that challenge scientific imperialism and deficit theories The diversity and freshness of the ideas in the book stem from the unique blend of the background of the contributors English language and literature teachers teachers of African languages

educationalists sociologists historians and politicians Thus the book is a valuable asset to scholars in linguistics anthropology and language policy makers

Die Prager Universität im Mittelalter František Šmahel,2006-12-31 The present collection divided into three thematic sections includes twenty one studies on the history of the University of Prague from its foundation in 1348 to the 16th century The first section is devoted to the birth of the university its first institutions the growth of the earliest colleges and the victory of the Reformist party The second part concentrates on the curriculum examinations graduations and annual disputations of the Faculty of Liberal Arts Section three deals with university polemics about universalia realia mainly in relation to the scholarly and literary activity of Jerome of Prague 1416

Canonical Medicine Roger French,2021-12-28 This book deals with the work of one of the most famous medical scholars of the middle ages renowned to his contemporaries as being able to see more deeply into the theory of medicine than anyone else It is based in particular on an analysis of his huge commentary on Avicenna s Canon the biggest and most important single medical text of the Middle Ages This is the first modern analysis of the commentary and while the size and elaborate scholastic structure of it has deterred historians it remained an important text for two centuries This book explains the nature and purposes of medical scholasticism which reached its height in the half century before the Black Death in which Gentile died
