

Chapter 1

Introduction

This is a sample of \LaTeX file about how to use the thesis template. To use the template of thesis, you need to download the files `LUthesis.sty`, `sample-thesis.tex`, `Abstract.tex` and `Acknowledgements.tex`.

This template uses a style file instead of a `.cls` file so that we can take the advantages of `report.cls` and make things simpler.

Any input and suggestions are welcomed. You may send an email for comments to

`ruizhong.wei@lakeheadu.ca`

To use this template, you need some basic knowledge about \LaTeX , which can be easily found by google search with the key word `LaTeX`.

1.1 Main idea

After you downloaded the files, you may type your thesis by editing the three `.tex` files. You may first read the `sample-thesis.tex` and try to understand the command lines in the file. You can do that by comparing the `sample-thesis.tex` and `sample-thesis.pdf` files.

Note that you should use a plain text editor to edit the `.tex` file. You also need a \LaTeX compiler in your computer. For windows user, you may use MikTeX as a compiler and LEd (Latex Editor) as an editor. These are free software. UNIX system usually has a latex compiler.

Bedeian,1993 Precarious Manhood in Zadie Smith's "Embassy of Cambodia" Holger Weinreich,2016-01-14 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 7 University of

G ttingen Englisches Seminar course Black British Fiction language English abstract The following term paper deals with the question in how far the theory of precarious manhood can be applied to novel Embassy of Cambodia by Zadie Smith that was first published in 2013 As the main female character Fatou a woman from Ivory Coast who works as a live in maid with Pakistani family the Derawals in a working class suburb of London is a very strong character who apart from her gender does not show many traits of character that are stereotypically female the implications of the theory of precarious manhood suggest that a male character behaves accordingly next to a strong femine hero Therefore the main goal of this term paper is to analyse in how far the main male character Andrew Okonkwo complies with this theory in his behavior and actions Although there are also other male characters for example Fatou s father Mr Derawal Faizul Derawal the man from Russia and several other miscellaneous male persons but due to the limitations of this term paper and the fact that all other characters do not have enough appearances or are even mentioned only once this paper is limited to an analysis of Andrew Okonkwo In addition to that the behaviour of the other male characters largely could only be only be inferred by interpreting the situation they are living in or making assumptions that go beyond what is written in the book At first the term paper gives a brief overview about the terms masculinity and manhood and the theory of precarious manhood is introduced Later the main male character in the novel is described and his behaviour is being analysed according to being stereotypically male and compliant to the theory of precarious manhood In the conclusion the author summarises the findings and also adresses topics for potential further research
