Castles in the Air Kenneth Khulekani Khoza,2013-12-27 Castles in the Air is an attempt to open discussions on some often overlooked issues which affect education particularly in rural and township government schools In order to make it a truly South African drama I have drawn from oral tradition by including songs and poems which play an integral part in traditional storytelling There are many folksongs which were included in earlier versions but I decided to remove them in the final version because I did not intend to write a musical There are also some praise poems that I composed for the main character and his father I studied oral tradition and I am confident that the praise poems I composed have all the qualities of the real praise poems and because I could not compose them in English I therefore wrote them in isiZulu with translations in the glossary at the end
