Museums And Memory:

Museums and Memory Susan A. Crane, 2000 This volume considers museums from personal experience and historical study and from the memories of museum visitors curators and scholars Representing a variety of fields the essays range widely over time and place in exhibitions explored and types of institutions

Defining Memory Amy K. Levin, 2007-03-01 Defining Memory uses case studies of exhibits from around the country to examine how local museums defined as museums whose collections are local in scope or whose audiences are primarily local have both shaped and been shaped by evolving community values and sense of history Levin and her contributors argue that these small institutions play a key role in defining America's self identity and should be studied as seriously as more national institutions like the Smithsonian and the Metropolitan Museum of Art

Museums, Emotion, and Memory Culture Gönül Bozoğlu, 2019-09-18 Museums Emotion and Memory Culture examines the politics of emotion in history museums combining approaches and concerns from museum heritage and memory studies anthropology and studies of emotion Exploring the meanings and politics of memory contests in Turkey a site for complex negotiations of identity the book asks what it means for museums to charge the past with political agendas through spectacular emotive representations Providing an in depth examination of emotional practice in two Turkish museums that present contrasting representations of the national past the book analyses relationships between memory governmentality identity and emotion The museums discussed celebrate Ottoman and Early Republican pasts linking to geo and party politics people's senses of who they are popular memory culture and competing national stories and identities vis vis Europe and the wider world Both museums use dramatic emotive panoramas as key displays and the research at the heart of this book explores this seemingly anachronistic choice and how it links with memory cultures to prompt visitors to engage imaginatively socially politically and morally with a particular version of the past Although the book focuses on museums in Turkey it uses this as a platform to address broader questions about memory culture emotion and identity As such Museums and Memory Culture should be of great interest to academics and students around the world who are engaged in the study of museums heritage culture history politics anthropology sociology and the psychology of emotion

Mediating Memory in the Museum S. Arnold-de-Simine, Silke Arnold-de Simine, 2013-10-16 Mediating Memory in the Museum is a contribution to an emerging field of research that is situated at the interface between memory studies and museum studies It highlights the role of museums in the proliferation of the so called memory boom as well as the influence of memory discourses on international trends in museum cultures

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory Sharon Deane-Cox, Anneleen Spiessens, 2022-05-29 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory serves as a timely and unique resource for the current boom in thinking around translation and memory The Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of a contemporary and as yet unconsolidated research landscape with a four section structure which encompasses both current debate and future trajectories Twenty four chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars provide a cross sectional snapshot of the diverse angles of approach and case studies that have thus far driven research into translation and memory A valuable far reaching range of theoretical empirical reflective comparative and archival approaches are brought to bear on translational sites of memory and mnemonic sites of translation through the examination of topics such as traumatic postcolonial cultural literary and translator memory This Handbook is key reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in translation studies memory studies and related areas

Holocaust Memory and National Museums in Britain Emily-Jayne Stiles,2021-11-16 This book explores the Holocaust exhibition opened within the Imperial War Museum IWM in 2000 setting out the long and often contentious debates surrounding the conception design and finally the opening of an important exhibition within a national museum in Britain It considers a process of memory making through an assessment of Holocaust photographs material culture and survivor testimonies exploring theories of cultural memory as they apply to the national museum context Anchored in time and place the Holocaust exhibition within Britain s national museum of war is influenced by and reflects an international rise in Holocaust consciousness in the 1990s This book considers the construction of Holocaust memory in 1990s Britain providing a foundation for understanding current and future national memory projects Through all aspects of the display the Holocaust is presented as meaningful in terms of what it says about Nazism and what this in turn says about Britishness From the original debates surrounding the inclusion of a Holocaust gallery at the IWM to the acquisition of Holocaust artefacts that could act as concrete evidence of Nazi barbarity and criminality the Holocaust reaffirms an image of Britain that avoids critical self reflection despite raising uncomfortably close questions The various display elements are brought together to consider multiple strands of the Holocaust story as it is told by national museums in Britain

Museums, Memory, Metaphor Thomas Spencer Cowen,1983

Museums and Sites of Persuasion Joyce Apsel,Amy Sodaro,2019-10-14 Museums and Sites of Persuasion examines the concept of museums and memory sites as locations that attempt to promote human rights democracy and peace Demonstrating that such sites have the potential to act as powerful spaces of persuasion or contestation the book also shows that there are perils in the selective memory and history that they present Examining a range of museums memorials and exhibits in places as varied as Burundi Denmark Georgia Kosovo Mexico Peru Vietnam and the US this volume demonstrates how they represent and try to come to terms with difficult histories As sites of persuasion the contributors to this book argue their public goal is to use memory and education about the past to provide moral lessons to visitors that will encourage a more democratic and peaceful future However the case studies also demonstrate how political economic and social realities often undermine this lofty goal raising questions about how these sites of persuasion actually function on a daily basis Straddling several interdisciplinary fields of research and study Museums and Sites of Persuasion will be essential reading for those working in the fields of museum studies memory studies and genocide studies It will also be essential reading for museum practitioners and anyone engaged in the study of history sociology political

Places of Public Memory Greg Dickinson, Carole Blair, Brian L. Ott, 2010-08-02 Though we live in a time when memory seems to be losing its hold on communities memory remains central to personal communal and national identities And although popular and public discourses from speeches to films invite a shared sense of the past official sites of memory such as memorials museums and battlefields embody unique rhetorical principles Places of Public Memory: The Rhetoric of Museums and Memorials is a sustained and rigorous consideration of the intersections of memory place and rhetoric From the mnemonic systems inscribed upon ancient architecture to the roadside acci History, Memory and Public Life Anna Maerker, Simon Sleight, Adam Sutcliffe, 2018-07-06 History, Memory and Public Life introduces readers to key themes in the study of historical memory and its significance by considering the role of historical expertise and understanding in contemporary public reflection on the past Divided into two parts the book addresses both the theoretical and applied aspects of historical memory studies Approaches to history and memory introduces key methodological and theoretical issues within the field such as postcolonialism sites of memory myths of national origins and questions raised by memorialisation and museum presentation Difficult Pasts looks at history and memory in practice through a range of case studies on contested complex or traumatic memories including the Northern Ireland Troubles post apartheid South Africa and the Holocaust Examining the intersection between history and memory from a wide range of perspectives and supported by guidance on further reading and online resources this book is ideal for students of history as well as those working within the broad interdisciplinary field of memory studies Museums Journal Elijah Howarth, F. Hubbell, Natsuko Akagawa, Sol Rojas-Lizana, Annie Pohlman, 2020-10-31 This volume explores the relationship between place traumatic memory and narrative Drawing on cases from Africa Asia Europe Oceania and North and South America the book provides a uniquely cross cultural and global approach Covering a wide range of cultural and linguistic contexts the volume is divided into three parts memorial spaces sites of trauma and traumatic representations The contributions explore how acknowledgement of past suffering is key to the complex inter relationship between the politics of memory expressions of victimhood and collective memory Contributors take note of differing aspects of memorial culture such as those embedded in war memorials mass grave sites and exhibitions as well as journalistic literary and visual forms of commemorations to investigate how narratives of memory can give meaning and form to places of trauma The Routledge Handbook of Memory Activism Yifat Gutman, Jenny Wüstenberg, 2023-02-15 This Handbook is the first systematic effort to map the fast growing phenomenon of memory activism and to delineate a new field of research that lies at the intersection of memory and social movement studies From

Charlottesville to Cape Town from Santiago to Sydney we have recently witnessed protesters demanding that symbols of racist or colonial pasts be dismantled and that we talk about histories that have long been silenced But such events are only the most visible instances of grassroots efforts to influence the meaning of the past in the present Made up of more than 80 chapters that encapsulate the rich diversity of scholarship and practice of memory activism by assembling different disciplinary traditions methodological approaches and empirical evidence from across the globe this Handbook establishes important questions and their theoretical implications arising from the social political and economic reality of memory activism Memory activism is multifaceted takes place in a variety of settings and has diverse outcomes but it is always crucial to understanding the constitution and transformation of our societies past and present This volume will serve as a guide and establish new analytic frameworks for scholars students policymakers journalists and activists alike

Towards an Understanding of Kurdistan Memory Culture Bareez Majid,2023-12-20 This book presents a thorough analysis of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq s memory culture focusing particularly on commemorations and representations of the Anfal and Halabja atrocities The author employs a transdisciplinary approach that draws on Memory Studies Postcolonial Studies Heritage Studies Kurdish Studies Literary Studies and Trauma Studies to analyze cultural objects such as Kurdistan literary novels museums and school curricula The book introduces two key concepts the phantomic museum and the apostrophic museum The former explores the fragile and politicized nature of memories of missing individuals who disappeared during Saddam Hussein s genocidal campaigns and who have never been found primarily as they return in the Halabja Monument and Peace Museum The latter examines how the addressing apostrophizing of Kurdistan in and by the Amna Suraka museum in the city of Sulaymaniyah institutionalizes official and highly politicized versions of the past
