

Government Policy Development Process With Best Practices

Guiding principles set in the methodology for policy development

Policy development is crucial to the proper functioning of local government. Developing and implementing policy is a continuous process that requires constant developing and reviewing. The following process helps the Inland River Trust develop their new policy:

01 Identify and Define Needs

Understand the purpose of policies and recognise problems that can be effectively handled by the new policy. Delegate responsibility to an individual, sub-committee or staff members, to to the policy development process.

02 Gather Information and Draft a policy

What are legal responsibilities? Can you use existing templates? Who will guide you? Prepare a draft policy with appropriate wording, length and complexity.

03 Consult with Stakeholders

Discuss the potential implications of the policy with supporters, staff, volunteers, management committee and service users. Review and get the policy approved by the Management Committee.

04 Implementing Policies

Where will the policy be implemented? Who will implement the policy? Who will develop implementation procedures. How will the policy be communicated and to whom? Does it require any training to support the implementation?

05 Monitor, Review, Revise

What reporting and monitoring systems are needed to implement and assess the policy.
