Dean School of Community Health and Policy, Dr. Kim Sydnor, Interim Director of the Nursing Program, Dr. Mamie Montague in absentia, faculty and staff of the school of community health and policy, graduating students, friends and family – Greetings!

I feel honored to speak here today at the nursing pinning ceremony of the Class of 2014. I will like to begin by saying congratulations to you, class of 2014! You deserve that round of applause. I know it has not been an easy journey because, as you might have suspected by now, I've been there! You have gone through a tedious academic and professional journey, one that can only be successfully completed through hard work, diligence and determination. The nursing curriculum is a very intense and elaborate curriculum. Yet, through thick and thin and throughout its joy and the challenges, you did it anyway! So I say good job, and congratulations!

Here we are today at your pinning. The nursing pinning is a solemn occasion dated as far back as the 12th century when the Knight Hospitallers were honored with a Maltese pin for caring for injured soldiers; back to 1860 when Florence Nightingale was honored with the Red Cross pin for the great nursing work she did in the war in Crimea; and back to 1890 when a class of nurses at the Bellevue Hospital School of Nursing in New York were the first to be pinned on graduation. So, class of 2014, this is your time. It is an occasion to honor you also for the successful completion of the first and major part of your education as professional nurses. This ceremony is a rite of passage to symbolize where you went, and to declare with you, your readiness and passage into the world to care for humanity in a professional manner. Every time you wear the pin, you remember the faculty, the staff and your colleagues of the Morgan State University nursing program that were part of your journey and your professional life story. The pin reminds you that, from now on, your mission is three-in-one - to care, to advocate and to lead. In other words, you are now a care provider to your patients, an advocate for your clients, and a leader in any setting you might find yourself.

Now that you have scaled one big hurdle, you would be looking forward to taking your Board exams and making progress in your professional career. My prayer and prediction for you are that you will pass your Board exams soon and you will make great progress in life. In the meantime, I would like to share a few thoughts with you as you move on from here. My thoughts for you today are centered on your three-in-one mission of caring, advocating and leading.

There is no doubt that Morgan State University has imparted in you a broad range of the art and science of caring through its intense nursing curriculum. And, because of the broad nursing knowledge, proficient caring skills and professional caring attitude that you have acquired through this school, your patients and their families are the better for it. The country and the world are the better for it. So, now, you should go into the world as nurses who truly care. Not as those who are in it solely for the money, but as those whose sense of caring is saturated with genuine love, selflessness and compassion.
