Ackerman, Ian Ayres, 2002-01-01 In this provocative book two leading law professors challenge the existing campaign reform agenda and present a new initiative that avoids the mistakes of the past Bruce Ackerman and Ian Ayres build on the example of the secret ballot and propose a system of secret donation booths for campaign contributions They unveil a plan in which the government provides each voter with a special credit card account containing fifty Patriot dollars for presidential elections To use this money citizens go to their local ATM machine and anonymously send their Patriot dollars to their favorite candidates or political organizations Americans are free to make additional contributions but they must also give these gifts anonymously Because candidates cannot identify who provided the funds it will be much harder for big contributors to buy political influence And the need for politicians to compete for the Patriot dollars will give much more power to the people Ackerman and Ayres work out the operating details of their plan anticipate problems design safeguards suggest overseers and show how their proposals satisfy the most stringent constitutional requirements They conclude with a model statute that could serve as the basis of a serious congressional effort to restore Americans faith in democratic politics Bell & Howell Newspaper Index to the Los Angeles Times, 1984 Los Angeles Times, 1974 A New Leaf Alyson Martin, Nushin Rashidian, 2015-02-03 Two award winning journalists offer a cogent well sourced and ambitious analysis of the slow decline of cannabis prohibition in the United States Kirkus Reviews In November 2012 voters in Colorado and Washington passed landmark measures to legalize the production and sale of cannabis for social use a first in the United States and the world Once vilified as a gateway drug cannabis is now legal for medical use in eighteen states and Washington DC Yet the federal government refuses to acknowledge these broader societal shifts 49.5 percent of all drug related arrests involve the sale manufacture or possession of cannabis In the first book to explore the new landscape of cannabis in the United States investigative journalists Alyson Martin and Nushin Rashidian demonstrate how recent cultural and legal developments tie into cannabis's complex history and thorny politics Reporting from nearly every state with a medical cannabis law Martin and Rashidian interview patients growers doctors entrepreneurs politicians activists and regulators A New Leaf moves from the federal cannabis farm at the University of Mississippi to the headquarters of the ACLU to Oregon's
