Social Entrepreneurship in the Middle East Dima Jamali, Alessandro Lanteri, 2016-04-29 This two volume book unveils trends strengths weaknesses and overall dynamics and implications of social entrepreneurship in the Middle East region whilst identifying both opportunities and threats facing social entrepreneurship and supplements through a wealth of insights and examples inspired from practice and current applications

New Paradigms in Ergonomics Neville A. Stanton, Paul M. Salmon, Guy Walker, 2020-04-28 The systems in which we work continue to evolve creating emergent problems and often strengthening intractable issues In order to remain relevant and impactful the discipline of ergonomics needs its paradigms to evolve too The aim of this book is to provide researchers and practitioners with new paradigms in the form of ideas concepts theories methods practices and values The chapters take the reader on a journey through underlying theories new ways to apply those theories and emerging domains in which ergonomics is expected to play a greater role Readers of this book will be inspired by these new paradigms in ergonomics and seek to push the boundaries even further The lifeblood of the science depends on continual evolution and developments to take on the challenges we face in complex sociotechnical systems design and evaluation Perhaps the most significant take home message from this book is the demonstration of how theory maps onto practice As such the only remaining paradigm shift is for these ideas concepts methods and practices to be taken up more widely and the discipline advanced until the next paradigm shift occurs The chapters were originally published as a special issue in the journal Ergonomics

Order and Conflict in Public Space Mattias De Backer, Lucas Melgaço, Georgiana Varna, Francesca Menichelli, 2016-05-20 Which public and whose space The understanding of public space as an arena where individuals can claim full use and access hides a reality of constant negotiation conflict and surveillance This collection uses case studies concerning the management use and transgression of public space to invite reflection on the way in which everyday social interaction is framed and shaped by the physical environment and vice versa International experts from fields including geography criminology sociology and urban studies come together to debate the concepts of order and conflict in public space This book is divided into two parts spaces of control and spaces of transgression Section I focuses on formal and informal surveillance and the politics of control using case studies to compare strategies in spaces including Olympic cities luxury skyscrapers residential neighbourhoods and shopping malls Section II focuses on transgressive or deviant behaviour in public spaces with case studies examining behaviour in nightlife districts governance of homelessness boy racer culture and abortion protests The epilogue concludes the book with an exploration of possible future avenues for research on public space and a critical appraisal of the concept of public space itself This interdisciplinary collection will be of interest to students researchers and professionals in the areas of criminology sociology surveillance studies human and social geography and urban studies and planning
