Sense Perception and Testimony in the Gospel According to John Sunny Kuan-Hui Wang,2017-06-02 In this book Sunny Kuan Hui Wang explores the relationship between sense perception and testimony in the Gospel of John While Johannine scholars tend to focus on one or the other she shows that sense perception and testimony are both significant and are used together with the intention of drawing readers into the narrative so that they become witnesses in an emotionally engaged way It is argued that John s use of sense perception together with testimony is rooted in Jewish literature Yet John also employs a Graeco Roman rhetorical technique enargeia which appeals to the persuasive power of sense perception to make his narrative vivid John does not downplay sense perception Rather he uses it in the context of testimony as a means of persuasion to draw the readers in their imagination into the experience of the first disciples and thus deeper into faith and witness

Christology and Discipleship in John 17 Marianus Pale Hera,2013 Using the method of literary critical analysis to read the Johannine narrative Marianus Pale Hera underlines the profound relationship between the Johannine Christology and the Gospel s teaching on discipleship A narrative reading of selected passages from chapters 1 12 of John the prologue Jesus first disciples the first sign at Cana the man born blind and the I Am sayings indicates John s tendency to present christological teaching that leads to teaching on discipleship The reading of these passages also identifies the elements that indicate the christological character of Johannine discipleship The author s exegesis of John 17 confirms that John s teaching on Christology and discipleship are intimately interrelated to each other All the elements that indicate the christological character of discipleship are on display in John 17 The author concludes that Christology which is the center and heartbeat of John s thought is not an end in itself but leads to discipleship The twofold message of Christology and discipleship is a distinctive Johannine trait
