Mad Forest Script

Jeffrey Sweet

Mad Forest Script:

The Conscience of Humankind, 2021-11-22 The traumatic experiences of persecution and genocide have changed traditional views of literature The discussion of historical truth versus aesthetic autonomy takes an unexpected turn when confronted with the experiences of the victims of the Holocaust the Gulag Archipelago the Cultural Revolution Apartheid and other crimes against humanity The question is whether and if so to what extent literary imagination may depart from historical truth In general the first reactions to traumatic historical experiences are autobiographical statements written by witnesses of the events However the second and third generations the sons and daughters of the victims as well as of the victimizers tend to free themselves from this generic restriction and claim their own way of remembering the history of their parents and grandparents They explore their own limits of representation and feel free to use a variety of genres they turn to either realist or postmodernist ironic or grotesque modes of writing Lumea, 1982 Solving Your Script Jeffrey Sweet, 2001 Solving Your Script is a hardheaded approach to solving technical problems in scripts In down to earth chapters award winning playwright and screenwriter Jeffrey Sweet introduces tools enabling writers to write exposition using the future tense make characters vivid even before they appear find the idiosyncrasies in a character that will generate story Each chapter includes a discussion of a particular technique followed by an assignment from Sweet s workshop and scenes written by his colleagues and students There are also detailed discussions of what works in the scenes what is problematic and why The Cambridge Companion to Modern British Women Playwrights Elaine Aston, Janelle Reinelt, 2000-05-25 This Companion first published in 2000 addresses the work of women playwrights in Britain throughout the twentieth century The chapters explore the historical and theatrical contexts in which women have written for the theatre and examine the work of individual playwrights A chronological section on playwriting from the 1920s to the 1970s is followed by chapters which raise issues of nationality and identity Later sections question accepted notions of the canon and include chapters on non mainstream writing including black and lesbian performance Each section is introduced by the editors who provide a narrative overview of a century of women s drama and a thorough chronology of playwriting set in political context The collection includes essays on the individual writers Caryl Churchill Sarah Daniels Pam Gems and Timberlake Wertenbaker as well as extensive documentation of contemporary playwriting in Wales Scotland and Northern Ireland including figures such as Liz Lochhead and Anne Devlin The Theatre of Caryl Churchill R. Darren Gobert, 2014-09-25 This is a detailed study of the work of Britain s leading female playwright that will be invaluable for student and theatre goers It maps her work through five key areas that characterise her broad ranging output and includes a close study of seventeen of the principle plays It also features a number of essays by leading scholars Emily Mann Alexis Greene, 2021-11-01 Emily Mann Rebel Artist of the American Theater is the story of a remarkable American playwright director and artistic director It is the story of a woman who defied the American theater s sexism a traumatic assault and illness to create unique documentary plays and to lead the McCarter Theatre Center for thirty seasons to a place of national recognition The book traces and describes Emily Mann s family life her coming of age in Chicago during the exuberant rebellious and often violent 1960s how sexual violence touched her personally and how she fell in love with theater and began learning her craft at the Loeb Drama Center in Cambridge Massachusetts while a student at Radcliffe Mann s evolution as a professional director and playwright is explored first at the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis where she received an MFA from the University of Minnesota then on and off Broadway and at regional theaters Mann s leadership of the McCarter is examined along with her battles to overcome multiple sclerosis and to conquer personally and artistically the memories of the violence she experienced when a teenager Finally the book discusses her retirement from the McCarter while amplifying her ongoing journey as a theater artist of sensitivity and originality Mann s many awards include the 2015 Margo Jones Award the 2019 Visionary Leadership Award from Theatre Communications Group and the 2020 Lilly Award for Lifetime Achievement In 2019 she was inducted into the Theater Hall of Fame for Lifetime Achievement in the American Theater Essays on Caryl Churchill Sheila Mary

Rabillard,1998 Playwright Versus Director Sidney Berger,1994-08-30 Giving equal space to the sanctity of script and the artistic freedom of directors this book addresses the difficulties encountered by playwrights and directors as they bring a script to the stage Inspired directors can help a writer of genius turn his play into exciting theatre but playwrights find that giving directors leeway to interpret and modify text can result in directors overriding authorial intentions This book presents the best that has been written by literary theorists on the current definitions of text and attempts to depart from quick rule of thumb assessments of the problem Drawing from definitive articles in literary and theatre journals part one gives the reader basic concepts and terminology Interviews with playwrights and directors showing the complexity of the issue appear in part two and part three includes case studies of playwrights and directors who faced production crises Legal aspects of collaboration are considered in part four The book concludes with a positive approach and possible solution to the problem
