

First Aid for Children

1. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this site is to give you the skills you need to be a leader or an adult helper. Please do not give any first aid unless you are trained to do so. This is especially true for children. Always get help from a professional. A child is not an adult and needs to be treated as such.

WAYS TO GET HELP

Always get help when you are not trained to do so. You may be able to help a child who is not seriously injured or who is not in danger. Always get help from a professional.

HOW TO CALL THE EMS

- Stay calm.
- Make sure the child is safe.
- The operator will ask you a series of questions so they can get you the help you need.
- The operator will tell you what to do next. Listen carefully and follow the instructions.
- The operator will stay on the phone to get you further information if you need it. Do not hang up until you are told to do so.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

- Know the location of the child and the location of the child's home.
- Know the name of the child and the name of the parent.
- Know the name of the child's doctor and the name of the child's insurance.
- Know the name of the child's school and the name of the child's teacher.
- Know the name of the child's friends and the name of the child's family.

CHILDREN'S REACTION

Children may react differently to first aid. Some children may be scared or shy. Some children may be curious. Some children may be angry. Some children may be sad. Some children may be happy. Some children may be confused. Some children may be angry. Some children may be sad. Some children may be happy. Some children may be confused.
