Jacobs-Nzuzi Khuabi, Faeza Bardien, 2023-03-01 This is the second book in the Health Functioning and Technology series The focus of this book is on teaching learning and assessment in rehabilitation education within the African context The primary contributors to the book are authors from occupational therapy physiotherapy and speech language therapy in South Africa The authors discuss local contextual drivers for renewing rehabilitation professions curricula that support graduates in becoming competent socially accountable and dynamic The foundational element of the chapters in the book is the African context and evidence informed educational practice We include the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on teaching learning student support and the integration of technology to assist in achieving the goals of the curricula Through the different themes of transformative learning curriculum renewal technology for learning and clinical training key topics are covered on responsive curricula leadership interprofessional education clinical competence critical consciousness peer teaching and learning learning technologies student support and emergency remote teaching and learning      Security Owner's Stock Guide Standard and Poor's Corporation, 2005-02      The Pharmacist's Expanded Role in Critical Care Medicine Yasir Alzaidi, Mohamed Abdelzaher Gebily, 2025-05-02 There are few textbooks aimed specifically at critical care pharmacists particularly in terms of their potential role in diagnosis Recognizing this important gap the editors of this comprehensive book have gathered together 55 chapters that provide an overview of core aspects of critical care patient management from the pharmacist s perspective The chapters written by an international team of more than 100 experts provide an important update on the physiological and pathological mechanisms of key areas of critical illness and the diagnostic and therapeutic approaches to these conditions for the pharmacist There are chapters focusing on specific diseases or conditions including shock acute liver failure acute kidney injury delirium and acute pulmonary embolism chapters on interpretation of diagnostic tests such as radiology and electrocardiography chapters on therapeutic interventions including mechanical ventilation intravenous fluids renal replacement therapy ECMO nutrition and blood transfusion and chapters on specific groups of ICU patients including obstetric oncology transplant and burn patients Two of the chapters on the approach to clinical reasoning in critical care and sustainable pharmacy practice in the ICU are unique chapters to pharmacy education and training Providing an up to date overview of topics related to critical care and emphasizing the importance of correct diagnosis in providing appropriate and optimal treatment this collection will help prepare ICU pharmacists for their multifaceted responsibilities as members of the ICU team including an expanded role in limiting misdiagnosis This book will serve as a useful resource for all pharmacists involved in the management of critically ill patients whatever their level of experience and training      Electronics Buyers' Guide ,1986      Disrupting Corporate Culture David G. White, Jr, 2020-08-17 Research in cognitive science over the last

30 years shows much of what we know about culture in the business world is based on myth wishful thinking outdated science or is just plain wrong This is why culture shaping and change programs in organizations often amount to little more than sloganeering with minimal impact on the lived experience of employees This book bridges the gap between the latest research on cognitive science and culture providing a valuable guide for change leaders CEOs and practitioners on how to sustainably work with and change this important resource It answers many of the major questions that have plagued culture work such as Why so many CEOs and management consultants preach culture change when so few culture interventions actually succeed Why CEOs persist in believing culture starts at the top when virtually no research in anthropology supports that claim Why most culture shaping approaches have no answer for how to affect culture in global companies Why culture doesn't cause us to do anything yet we persist in believing that somehow it does Why so many culture shaping projects focus on corporate values despite the fact modern science shows why changing personal values is exceedingly difficult What we are learning about culture from the last 30 years of cognitive science gives us the foundation for far more impactful and sustainable interventions than have been possible to date This book explains why showing how everyday business practices well beyond HR are key to culture change Why Because the brain's synaptic plasticity can only be altered through new sustained and widespread organizational habits and routines This groundbreaking practical guide will show you finally how to realize the full power of culture as a transformational empowering and competitive resource
