

EUROPEAN EXPLORERS

My Explorer Research Project

Essential Questions

What situations existed in Europe during the time that motivated the Europeans to explore the world never before?

What were they looking for?

What resources did they have?

What did they find?

How did they impact people and places?

Hardy, 2025-03-31 Dangerous Vagabonds examines the problem of illicit slavery in Senegal following the 1848 emancipation law Where traditional scholarship relates its persistence to the economic and logistic pressures in the region as well as a strong indigenous tradition of forced labor this study goes further to show that inherent factors within the culture of French colonialism made abolishing the institution exceedingly difficult In 1848 when slavery was abolished across greater France the practice remained virtually intact in the French colony of Senegal on the west coast of Africa Slavery would continue to be practiced in the colony and its expanding borderlands until at least 1905 when this study ends This work takes a multi faceted approach by examining three aspects of French imperial culture that mitigated slave freedom in Senegal the views of race and slavery maintained by Senegal's influential mixed race population French ethnological assessments of the aptitude and capabilities of black West Africans and related a trend within French political culture to deny metropolitan rights to the non white colonized a phenomenon that intensified in far flung French territories that were not completely under French control and where few whites resided In complexifying post colonial literature of West Africa this study will be a useful resource to students and scholars of the history of slavery colonial history and West African studies Scientific and
