Mawson's Mission Lora Marlene Mawson, 2020-07-28 Before 1968 women's athletics in higher education meant playdays and sports days That spring when the Division of Girls and Women in Sports announced that national collegiate sports championships for women would begin in 1969 Marlene Mawson a new hire on the physical education faculty at the University of Kansas was charged with establishing a women's athletics program I was on my own Mawson recalls because there was no precedent for creating a women's athletics program with a meager budget That meant planning sports competition schedules staffing coaches organizing policies and procedures for coaches and athletes coordinating practice schedules budgeting and directing the new KU intercollegiate sports program for women without intervention or guidance In their first decade KU women's teams competed in national championships in volleyball basketball softball and gymnastics In this book Mawson who was inducted into the KU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009 describes her remarkable career from her early years in Missouri to her retirement With behind the scenes views and insights that reflect a lifetime's experience her memoir weaves together the history of the development of women's athletics at the University of Kansas and the story of the birth of women's intercollegiate athletics across the United States from the Olympic Development Committee to Title IX to the NCAA It is an engaging account of groundbreaking personal achievement by a woman in the world of college sports and a stirring record of an extraordinary but little documented decade in the evolution of women's athletics

Escape from Hell Rhonda Knutson, 2010-04 Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1963 Always Beginning Maxine Kumin, 2000 In her essays as with her Pulitzer Prize winning poetry Maxine Kumin speaks to the encounter with poetry poets and the details of country life In clear direct prose Kumin is equally at ease musing over her garden or discussing poetic form raising horses or critiquing the work of other poets For Kumin poetry is inseparable from daily life Whether remembering the early days of courtship with her husband who then worked at Los Alamos during the first nuclear tests or observing a grandchild learning to swim poetry is a natural part of the discussion as when during an MRI she recounts the healing role of memorized poems Lying in my MRI tomb and doggedly reciting the poem against the terrible rapping I realized what saved
