Ja Yi Khali Yi Suluch:

Missing Soluch Mahmoud Dowlatabadi, 2012-04-10 Perhaps the most important work in modern Iranian literature this starkly beautiful novel examines the trials of an impoverished woman and her children living in a remote village in Iran after the unexplained disappearance of her husband Soluch Lyrical yet unsparing the novel examines her life as she contends with the political corruption authoritarianism and poverty of the village It follows her vacillations between love for Soluch and anger at his absence and her struggle to raise her children without their father The novel critically evokes the unfulfilled aspirations of modern Iran portraying a society caught between a past and a future that seem equally weighed down by injustice This landmark novel the first ever written in the everyday language of the Iranian people revolutionized Persian literature in its beautiful and daring portrayal of the life of a marginal woman and her struggle to survive Recasting American and Persian Literatures Amirhossein Vafa, 2016-12-09 Reading literary and cinematic events between and beyond American and Persian literatures this book questions the dominant geography of the East West divide which charts the global circulation of texts as World Literature Beyond the limits of national literary historiography and neocolonial cartography of world literary discourse the minor character Parsee Fedallah in Herman Melville's Moby Dick 1851 is a messenger who travels from the margins of the American literature canon to his Persian literary counterparts in contemporary Iranian fiction and film above all the rural woman Mergan in Mahmoud Dowlatabadi's novel Missing Soluch 1980 In contention with Eurocentric treatments of world literatures and in recognition of efforts to recast the worldliness of American and Persian literatures this book maintains that aesthetic properties are embedded in their local histories and formative geographies
