0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

0510/22

Paper 2 (Reading and Writing – Extended), maximum raw mark 90

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Stebbins,2015-09-16 We live in an information saturated environment and spend far too much time searching surfing skimming contributing and organizing the information in our lives We spend too little time immersing ourselves in reliable high quality information We are often so buried in information and strapped for time that we grab information like it was fast food without bothering to evaluate its quality Finding Reliable Information Online Adventures of an Information Sleuth uses stories or information adventures to illustrate the best approaches to searching for information and to help us develop our aptitude for locating high quality resources in a rapidly changing digital environment that is becoming proficient at monopolizing our attention with useless or unreliable information This book is about taking charge of the search process and not handing over the reins to search engines like Google Bing or Yahoo to dictate what information we consume Each chapter focuses on a quest for different types of information while digging deeper into the complexities of finding credible places to look for information and ways to think about evaluating it As the Internet evolves and becomes more sophisticated our strategies for finding and evaluating information need to evolve as well The stories in this book range from investigating challenging research questions to exploring health issues and everyday life questions like finding a reliable restaurant or product review These chapters go beyond the simple and more mechanical checklist approach to evaluating information though these factors are also discussed Ask What You Can Do For Your (New) Country Nadejda K Marinova,2017-06-01 Within recent years a new body of literature has emerged within international relations on transnationalism and foreign policy This literature has thus far focused on the strategic relationship between home states and their ethnic lobbies abroad often with regard to remittances to and politics in the home country This book breaks new ground in that it develops a theory about when how and for what reasons host states use diasporas and the ethnic lobbies they generate to advance foreign policy goals Ask What You Can Do for Your New Country focuses on a previously unexamined phenomenon how host governments utilize diasporas to advance their foreign policy agendas in mutually beneficial ways As was demonstrated in the run up to the 2003 invasion of Iraq when Iraqi exiles testified that Saddam Hussein possessed weapons of mass destruction ethnic lobbies have been utilized strategically by the United States and other countries for the promotion of political objectives Host states have even promoted the creation of such ethnic lobbies for this purpose As Nadejda K Marinova shows those who participate in such lobbies are of a particular subset of migr s who are politically active express a sustained vision for homeland politics and who often have existing ties to political institutions within the host state These groups then act as a link between the public and officials in their home state and other generally less politically active members of the diaspora via a coordinated effort by the host state She develops a theoretical model for determining the conditions under which a host state will decide to promote and utilize an ethnic lobby and she tests it against eight cases including the Bush Administration's use of the American Lebanese Cultural Union and the World Council for the Cedars Revolution in developing policy towards Lebanon and Syria the Iraqi National Congress in endorsing the US invasion of Iraq the Cuban American Committee's cooperation with the Carter administration in attempting to normalize relations with Cuba and the International Diaspora Engagement Alliance IdEA launched by Secretary of State Hillary Clinton in 2011 to promote economic development in a number of countries
