Shropshire J. A. B. Somerset, 1994-01-01 The Records of Early English Drama volumes make available historical transcripts that provide evidence of early English drama music ceremonial dance and other forms of communal public entertainment in Britain before 1642 together with the necessary interpretive introductions and notes to explicate the materials for the reader Shropshire in two volumes is the eleventh publication in the series In the introduction Alan Somerset surveys the social and economic history of each major borough and provides a commentary on the major issues raised in the documents He discusses travelling performers routes the places they performed and the remarkable public exhibitions of high wire artists camels bears and giants The records for this county are rich and varied providing new detail about local playing and festivities From Shrewsbury for example comes the complete documentation of a unique semi circular outdoor amphitheatre The documents reveal much from robbery and riots to the sometimes acrimonious disputes that show the growing Puritan opposition to sports which attempted to combat an equally stubborn affection for traditional customs These records are an invaluable addition to the scholarship of early drama establishing as they do part of the total context of the great drama of Shakespeare his predecessors and his contemporaries

Making Middle-Class Multiculturalism Jennifer Elrick, 2022-01-10 Making Middle Class Multiculturalism re interprets the historiography of the emergence of Canada s universal immigration policy for skilled workers and family immigrants in the 1950s and 1960s English Mechanics ,1923

English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1923 Planning Week ,1993-09 Awakening to China's Rise Hugo Meijer, 2022-08-01 Awakening to China s Rise provides the most comprehensive analysis to date of how Europe s major powers have responded to the re emergence of China as a great power in world politics since the end of the Cold War To do so it puts forward a unique cross regional comparison of how the major European powers France Germany and the United Kingdom have confronted Chinese assertiveness both in the Asia Pacific and in Europe Firstly it analyses their response to China s increasingly muscular regional posture in the Asia Pacific through the development of diplomatic and security initiatives with partners in the region Secondly it delineates how they have confronted China s inroads into Europe looking at the measures that they have taken to tackle Chinese investments in and supply of technologies in strategic sectors such as critical national infrastructures dual use technologies and in the digital domain including Huawei s 5G networks A longstanding assumption in the IR literature has been that European foreign policies toward the People s Republic of China have been driven by a na ve and self interested focus on the economic opportunities presented by such a vast market overlooking security considerations This book challenges such common belief through a detailed examination of the policies of France Germany and the United Kingdom from 1989 to the present Its central argument is that whereas this assessment aptly characterized the first two post Cold War decades Beijing s growing assertiveness after 2009 caused the three major European powers to awaken to China s rise In the 2010s heightened threat perceptions of China coupled with increasingly competitive bilateral economic relations with the PRC have gradually and cumulatively caused the hardening of their policy goals which in turn translated into the formulation of new policy instruments to confront such a challenge To substantiate this argument the book relies on a large body of previously undisclosed primary sources including 223 interviews conducted with senior officials in Europe Berlin Brussels London Paris in the United States Washington DC and in Asia Beijing Shanghai New Delhi Seoul declassified archival documents from France the UK and Germany leaked US diplomatic cables and new data on European naval deployments
