Rich State, Poor State Greg Mills, 2023-09-01 Why do some states thrive grow their economies and uplift their people while others facing similar challenges slide into low growth social dysfunction and failure After decades of work on the ground in Africa Latin America Asia Europe and the Middle East bestselling author Greg Mills seeks to provide answers in Rich State Poor State After decades of work on the ground in Africa Latin America Asia Europe and the Middle East bestselling author Greg Mills seeks to provide answers in Rich State Poor State On each continent he traverses Mills interrogates the how and why How did Botswana go from being one of the least developed and poorest nations at independence to enjoying the highest rate of per capita growth of any country in the world Why has South Africa failed to attain similar heights How did the Baltic states achieve reforms that have positioned them among the best performing economies in Europe How did Vietnam overcome a traumatic past in favour of a rapid and positive development transformation Why is Mexico the only large developing economy that competes with China in manufacturing Drawing from interviews with current and former presidents prime ministers and key government officials across the globe as well as research from leading institutions to enrich his fieldwork Mills contrasts the successes and the failures and in so doing seeks to determine a path for the next generation of leaders Insightful and inspiring Rich State Poor State shows that with better choices the right policies and the will to implement them it is entirely possible to travel the road from poverty to prosperity

Parameters ,2006 Contesting Transformation Marcelle C. Dawson, Luke Sinwell, 2014-04-10 Contesting Transformation is a sober and critical reflection on the wave of social movement struggles which have taken place in post Apartheid South Africa Moving beyond a social movement scholarship that has tended to romanticise emergent movements this collection takes stock of the contradiction and complexity that is necessarily entangled in all forms of popular resistance Through an exploration of labour strikes legal organisations community protest and local government elections the contributors consider how different movements conceive of transformation and assess the extent to which these understandings challenge the narrative of the ruling African National Congress ANC An empirically grounded analysis from a coterie of leading researchers and analysts Contesting Transformation is the definitive critical survey of the state of popular struggle in South Africa today Patrick van Rensburg Kevin Shillington, 2020-07-01 Patrick van Rensburg 1931 2017 was an anti apartheid activist and self made alternative educationist whose work received international recognition with the Right Livelihood Award in 1981 Born in KwaZulu Natal into what he described as a very ordinary South African family that believed in the virtue of racism Van Rensburg became a self styled rebel who tirelessly pursued his own vision of a brighter future for emerging societies in post colonial southern Africa His emotional and intellectual struggle against his upbringing and cultural roots led him to reject his life of white privilege in South Africa Determined to prevent the emergence of a privileged black elite in post colonial society he devoted his life to implementing an alternative egalitarian approach to education focusing on quality and functional schooling for the majority Rewarded with the internationally prestigious Right Livelihood Award for his unique contribution to education he saw this work as a necessary tool of development Exiled from South Africa in 1960 because of his involvement in the London boycott campaign that gave birth to the Anti Apartheid Movement Van Rensburg moved to Botswana then Bechuanaland There he founded cooperatives provided vocational training and was among the earliest educationists to espouse the discipline of development studies Perhaps his best known legacy is the Swaneng Hill School which he founded to provide an educational home for primary school dropouts through a curriculum that combined theory and practice and academic and manual labour He involved his pupils in building their school running it providing their own food and making their own equipment and furniture Van Rensburg was an innovative and charismatic visionary who captured the zeitgeist of the late twentieth century and whose work and vision still have resonance for debates in educational policy today Annual Report South African Institute of Race Relations,1982 Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe Benjamin Pogrud,2019-10-16 A collection of thought provoking and moving essays on Robert Sobukwe commissioned and edited by his biographer and friend Benjamin Pogrud Sobukwe was a lecturer lawyer founding member and first president of the Pan Africanist Congress PAC and Robben Island prisoner Official Gazette Tanganyika,1931 Pace ,1995-05

Southern African Perspectives on Sustainable Tourism Management Jarkko Saarinen,Berendien Lubbe,Naomi N. Moswete,2022-05-31 This edited collection focuses on tourism development sustainability and local change in southern Africa The book offers a range of both conceptual and applied perspectives that address various changes in southern African tourism and community development relations The key drivers of change that include climate change and globalization form the context for the diverse and interesting set of case studies from the region The main conceptual grounds of the book cover sustainability sustainable development goals SDGs responsibility vulnerability adaptation resilience governance local development and inclusive growth In this book sustainability is seen as one of the most important issues currently facing the tourism sector affecting all types and scales of tourism operations and environments in the region Tourism is an increasingly important economy in the southern African region and the industry is creating changes for communities and environment while also facing major challenges caused by global trends and changes The book offers a case study driven approach to sustainability needs of tourism development in local community contexts The case study chapters are linked through the book s focus on sustainable tourism and local community development Through emphasizing the need to understand both global change and local contexts in sustainable tourism development this book is a valuable resource for all those working in the field Three Essays on Collective Action and Communal Rangeland Management in Botswana Patricia Masego Makepe,2003 Report on Activities Working Group of Indigenous Minorities in Southern Africa,2003 Annual Report of the Geological Survey Department Botswana. Geological Survey Department,1994 The Languages of COVID-19 Piotr Blumczynski,Steven Wilson,2022-11-30 This collection advocates languages based translational research to be part of the partnerships and collaborations required to make sense of and respond to COVID 19 as one of the major global challenges of our time Bringing together scholars and practitioners from a wide range of disciplines this volume is bound by a common thread stressing the importance of linguistic sensitivity inter cultural knowledge and translational mediation in the frontline response to COVID 19 Featuring contributors from around the world and reflecting on the language used to frame COVID 19 in diverse cultural contexts of the Global North and Global South the book proposes that paying attention to the transmission of ideas ideologies narratives and history through processes of translation results in a broadening of social cultural and medical understandings of COVID 19 Spanning nearly 20 signed and spoken languages the volume argues that only in going beyond an Anglophone perspective can we better understand the cultural social and political facets of the pandemic and in turn produce a comprehensive efficient global response to disease management This book will be of interest to scholars in translation and interpreting studies modern languages applied linguistics cultural studies Deaf Studies intercultural communication and medical humanities

New Soja ,2004 Restless Identities Paul La Hausse,2000 In Restless Identities the prism of biography is used to capture the complex social identities of its subjects without reducing them to ciphers of larger historical transformations But this book is not a conventional biography nor is it simply about the recovery of two forgotten nationalists It draws us directly into the little understood world of Zulu cultural nationalism and explores the contested process of re imagining the Zulu nation Lamula and Maling s hitherto lost biographies dramatise the limits of our understanding of those intellectually heterodox socially marginal and culturally innovative individuals whose imagination and opportunism were vital to the history of African nationalism in South Africa but whose stories have yet to be told
