Constructing the Divine Abode of Dizang Bodhisattva Nan Ouyang, 2025-08-21 This book explores how Mount Jiuhua became the seat of Dizang Bodhisattva and evolved into a renowned Buddhist mountain during the late imperial period The uncoordinated yet collective efforts of various interested parties shaped the dynamic interplay between tangible elements mummies masters pilgrimage practices and intangible factors myths popular literature redefining and reinforcing the mountain's divine status By incorporating previously overlooked sources such as inscriptions amulets drama scripts and underworld passes this study highlights the critical role of rank and file religious practitioners in the sacred place making process

Designing Instruction Judith K. March, Karen H. Peters, 2008 A fresh new approach that strengthens the need for teaching with creative thinking strategies for administrative leadership teams Few textbooks have such detailed examples combined with the background study of best practices The authors have great credibility experience resources and abundant research to support their proposal A very well written text offering ample review of the research Sara E Spruce Professor of Education Olivet Nazarene University Use this research based instructional model to meet students achievement goals As the achievement gap between advantaged and disadvantaged students gets wider teachers and administrators need a proven process to help all students meet the requirements of NCLB This practitioner friendly guidebook provides a step by step approach to a complete standards based curriculum and the integration of best practices into the delivery and assessment of instruction in every classroom The authors present three capacity building features of the design process 1 training for building leadership teams to help teachers plan and lead the reform process 2 stewardship training to assist district administrators and principals in supporting and sustaining the implemented reforms and 3 a collaborative observation process to help teachers work together and in partnership with principals to monitor and improve classroom instruction Offering an education model that has been field tested with more than 50 school districts in the U S and Canada this book shows school leaders how to maximize collaborative observation and other team leadership processes to integrate reforms into a school s existing culture Educators will learn ways to Integrate instructional design with successful instructional reform Strengthen the learning culture through standards Develop effective performance indicators Apply curriculum mapping to instructional design Designing Instruction supports teachers and administrators working together to raise student achievement by using proven instructional design and best practices

Images and Artefacts of the Ancient World Alan K. Bowman, Michael Brady, 2005-05-26 In this genuinely productive interdisciplinary dialogue engineering scientists archaeologists and historians discuss how recent exciting developments in imaging image analysis and image display diffusion can be applied to three dimensional objects of material culture from the classical world ranging from inscribed writing tablets to buildings and urban sites The fifteen papers explore the ways in which the scientific contributors and the historians are thinking about subjectivity of interpretation visual cognition and the need to improve the presentation of evidence so as to feed directly back into their own scientific thinking and to encourage genuine innovation in developing methods of image enhancement and the interpretation of objects

The Ancient Egyptian Books of the Earth Joshua Aaron Roberson, 2014-06-23 Collections of scenes and texts designated variously as the Book of the Earth Creation of the Solar Disc and Book of Aker were inscribed on the walls of royal sarcophagus chambers throughout Egypt s Ramessid period Dynasties 19 20 This material illustrated discrete episodes from the nocturnal voyage of the sun god which functioned as a model for the resurrection of the deceased king These earliest Books of the Earth employed mostly ad hoc arrangements of scenes united by shared elements of iconography an overarching bipartite symmetry of composition and their frequent pairing with representations of the double sky overhead From the Twenty First Dynasty and later selections of programmatic tableaux were adapted for use in private mortuary contexts often in conjunction with innovative or previously unattested annotations The present study collects and analyzes all currently known Book of the Earth material including discussions of iconography grammar orthography and architectural setting

How to Make an Egyptian Coffin Julie Dawson,2018 A Preliminary Study of the Inner Coffin and Mummy Cover of Nesytanebettawy from Bab El-Gusus (A.9) in the National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institution, Washington Alec J. Noah,2013 "Yellow" Coffins from Thebes Rogério Sousa,2020 This volume proposes a theoretical and methodological framework for the study of yellow coffins which is one of the most extensive corpus of funerary objects from Ancient Egypt and the most complex in terms of decoration It presents a synthetic view on Egyptian coffin decoration during the II millennium B C together with in depth examination of a sample of nine previously unpublished burial assemblages Dating from the 21st 22nd Dynasties these objects were chosen to showcase the stages of development in coffin decoration detected in the yellow corpus as well as variations in style and layout A new formal typology of this corpus is proposed allowing a better understanding of the dynamics of coffin decoration in Theban workshops

Ancient Egyptian Coffins John H. Taylor,Marie Vandenbeusch,2018 This volume contains the proceedings of the twenty third Annual Egyptological Colloquium held at the British Museum in 2014 augmented by additional papers The twenty three contributions investigate functionality iconography and manufacture of ancient Egyptian coffins from the First Intermediate Period to the eighth century AD The authors explore the conceptual aspects which lay behind the production of coffins through the study of iconography and texts examining the functional role of these complex objects as structured compositions which were designed to play an important part in transforming the deceased occupants and perpetuating their existence beyond death Reinstating coffins in their archaeological and societal contexts the papers reflect on the circumstances in which they were made considering workshop practices and regional variability and studying coffins not only individually but also as components of larger conceptual entities in which the mummy the burial chamber and the tomb itself all had specific meanings Several contributions focus on areas of current interest such as the post burial adaptation and reuse of coffins considering how these issues relate to the economic environment in which they were made and to changing attitudes towards the immutability of burial arrangements
