Mutare General Hospital:

Challenged Lovers Fadzai Zimunya, 2013-11-21 This is a book about the power of love over all else Both Danai and Fadzai are first born children and expectations were understandably very high The central message here is that parents need to impart all they believe their offspring need to get and this needs to be during the formative years Young adults are subjected to societal influences that may not be in line with what the parents have in mind Life lessons must be given but respect of the young mind is critical to maintain balance Most parents find that they are busy with the day to day life demands to the extent that their offspring are left to find their ways Outside influences end up shaping the young minds In this true story the challenge came when the two young adults fell in love and decided to marry Their love was stronger than all efforts to separate them

One day this will all be over Ross Parsons, 2012-05-13 Ross Parsons has been working with HIV positive children in Mutare since 2005 As a child psychotherapist he was interested in exploring how a therapeutic group meeting regularly might offer a way of elaborating and meeting their needs His account of these experiences is presented as a rare blend of anthropological and psychotherapeutic approaches to the study of children and he is candid about the close even intimate relationships that resulted I have crossed the classical ethnographic and psychoanalytic boundary of the cool observer The therapist while still awkwardly present has also become an advocate in pursuit of the ethnographic The period of his research coincided with one of deep crisis in Zimbabwes economy employment opportunities were few public health and education services were in decay and the prospects were grim for those on the margins of society In the course of my fieldwork I have attended too many funerals In the absence of state support the poor look variously to international NGOs and to the church Parsons offers telling insights into the crossroads of donated pharmaceuticals and Christian faith and is constantly alert to the place of traditional spirituality and ties of kinship

Dare to Love Completely Janine Roberts, 2009-07 Follow a young woman off the plane down winding dusty paths and through the doors of an orphanage where children are waiting to teach you the most important lessons in life Travel past the orphanage to the surrounding villages and stoop inside darkened huts to greet men women and children whose stories of amazing faith give you strength and courage to go forth and fight the everyday battles See the AIDS epidemic spread from household to household yet watch as each one rises from the ashes and keeps going Return in the evening to the quiet cement house enveloped in darkness the only light a small glow from your candle Look around the room at your new friends a people willing to trust God and find joy in the midst of these devastating circumstances You will come to realize that no matter what a person faces the pain of grief and hardship is greatly diminished in the presence of lavish love Come experience true love Janine Roberts grew up in Vienna West Virginia She graduated from West Virginia Wesleyan College in 1999 and Asbury Theological Seminary in 2004 Janine traveled to Zimbabwe in 1998 and 2002 before moving to Fairfield Children s Homes from 2004 to 2007 During her time there she worked with Zimbabwean volunteers to expand a program called HOPE This program provides nutrition education
