It has been said that the peasants of the Campagna in their semi-annual visits to the Pontine marshes arrive piping and dancing but it is seldom they return in the same merry mood, the malaria fever being sure to affect them more or less. Although I did not leave Jackson on the night of the 15th piping and dancing yet it was with a very happy heart and very little foreboding of evil that I set off with a party of friends for a pleasant visit to Vicksburg. Like the peasants I returned more serious and with a dismal experience. How little do we know with what rapidity our feelings may change. We had been planning a visit to

Vicksburg for some weeks and anticipating pleasure in meeting our friends How gladly in a few days we left it with the explosions of bombs still sounding in our ears How beautiful was this evening the sun glowed and warmed into mellow tints over the rough forest trees over the long moss that swung in slow and stately dignity like old time dancers scorning the quick and tripping movements of the present day
