Denotation
and Connotation

The denotation of a word is its literal meaning, the one found in the dictionary. A connotation is usually, but not always, emotional. A positive connotation is the emotional association a reader makes for a word. A negative connotation is negative connotation.

Consider these examples for the neutral word eat:

get eat eat eat eat

For a snack, get and eat are methods of preparing food; the words have neutral or near-positive connotations. A snack would link the words snack and snack to have very negative connotations; snack—snack would link to have a neutral connotation.

Think: A reader might suggest that you get or eat a snack of meat or fish, but snack—snack suggests having or enjoying food.

Look at these examples of words that are similar in denotation but have different connotations.

NEUTRAL	POSITIVE	NEGATIVE
pleasant	delicious	stink
representation	cartoon	cartoonist
understand	simple	stupid

Professional writers and speakers understand the importance of connotation. A political candidate carefully chooses words for speeches, knowing that connotations can easily sway voters' minds. A poet carefully crafts a poem, making sure that each word's connotation is appropriate for the tone and message of the work.

Stages of Planning

Write a star sign (*) in the box if the word has a positive connotation.

Write a circle sign (o) if the word has a negative connotation. For a question (?) if the word is neutral.

1. replicate  2. garnish  3. enhance  4. soothe
5. charge  6. purport  7. abuse  8. congregate
9. devour  10. persecute  11. get  12. eat
13. sophisticated  14. reasonable  15. enhance  16. irritate
