

IB History IA Topics

The International Baccalaureate (IB) program requires its History students to undertake the Historical Investigation as their internal assessment requirement.

IB History students often find the toughest part of this extended project to be the process of selecting a topic for their investigation.

This article provides students with more than 50 topics to consider. These can be adapted, modified, combined or simply used as the basis for formulating a question or study on another topic of choice.

The topics listed here have all been used by IB History students from various schools or presented by the International Baccalaureate Organisation (IBO) as examples. Students should refer to, and follow, the current guidelines for the History Internal Assessment as published by the IBO.

50 History Internal Assessment Topics:

- To what extent did the successes of the Berlin Blockade and Airlift overshadow the negative outcomes for the Western Powers?
- An Investigation into Tiananmen Square discussing the heroes popularised in Western Media and Deng Xiaoping's "martyrs."
- Was the crossing of the Luding Bridge in May 1935 a great communist victory against tremendous odds, or a minor skirmish exaggerated by the Chinese Communist Party for propaganda purposes?
- Kent State: Was it the turning point in the Vietnam War?
- What were the causes of the Boston Massacre 1776?
- An oral history study on the role of women living in post-World War II Britain.
