Grade Geography Paper2 2012:

Urban Competitiveness Peter Kresl, Daniele Ietri, 2014-08-27 During the past 25 years the burden of managing economic policy for competitiveness has devolved to cities and to urban regions National governments have increasingly been focused on staving off fiscal collapse Mayors and local administrations have become very creative and active in looking after the state of their local economy and have developed extensive agencies for inter city cooperation and action This book explores this evolving role of cities and urban regions Intelligent and rational policy must be based on an accurate understanding of the situation at hand and of the economic theory that can be utilized in the assessment of the most effective means that can be deployed This book examines the theoretical contributions of economists and geographers and through the analyses of the performance of various cities will give the reader an understanding of the logic behind rational policy formation Evaluation of a city's relative competitiveness is a controversial matter and this book provides a full treatment of the various approaches Finally it examines the experiences with competitiveness of several cities in North America and in Europe Urban Competitiveness Theory and Practice confirms that many cities in trying times do have a mechanism for enhancing their competitiveness and can work to create the sort of economic life the city's residents want Democratic Incongruities D.

Judge, 2014-03-07 Clear disparities exist between notions of representative democracy and political practice in Britain Alternative models of democracy however have their own incongruities in trying to marry representation and democracy This book analyses the mismatches in democratic theories and between theory and practice in British representative democracy

Chynoweth, 2021-09-28 Museums and the Working Class is the first book to take an intersectional and international approach to the issues of economic diversity and class within the field of museum studies Bringing together 16 contributors from eight countries this book has emerged from the significant global dialogue concerning museums obligation to be inclusive participate in meaningful engagement and advocate for social change As part of the push for museums to be more accessible and inclusive museums have been challenged to critically examine their power relationships and how these are played out in what they collect whose stories they exhibit and who is made to feel welcome in their halls This volume will further this professional and academic debate through the discussion of class Contributions to the book will also reinforce the importance of the working class not only in collection and exhibition policy but also for the organisational psychology of institutions Museums and the Working Class is essential reading for scholars and students of museum gallery and heritage studies cultural studies sociology labour studies and history It will also serve as a source of honest and research led inspiration to practitioners working in museums galleries libraries archives and at heritage sites around the world

Unlocking Africa's Business Potential Landry Signe, 2020-04-07 Africa welcomes business investment and offers some of the world's highest returns and impacts Africa has tremendous economic potential and offers rewarding opportunities for global businesses looking for new markets and long term investments with favorable returns Africa has been one of the world's fastest growing regions over the past decade and by 2030 will be home to nearly 1.7 billion people and an estimated 6.7 trillion worth of consumer and business spending Increased political stability in recent years and improving regional integration are making market access easier and business expansion will generate jobs for women and youth who represent the vast majority of the population Current economic growth and poverty alleviation efforts mean that more than 43 percent of the continent's people will reach middle or upper class status by 2030 Unlocking Africa's Business Potential examines business opportunities in the eight sectors with the highest potential returns on private investment the same sectors that will foster economic growth and diversification job creation and improved general welfare These sectors include consumer markets agriculture and agriprocessing information and communication technology manufacturing oil and gas tourism banking and infrastructure and construction The book's analysis of these sectors is based on case studies that identify specific opportunities for investment and growth along with long term market projections to inform decision making The book identifies potential risks to business and offers mitigation strategies It also provides policymakers with solutions to attract new business investments including how to remove barriers to business and accelerate development of the private sector

Teaching Sustainability Wendy Petersen Boring, William Forbes, William Forbes (Professor of geography), 2013 American colleges and universities have been relatively quick to address the challenge of sustainability in operations Ironically they have been slower to respond in regard to their core mission educating students Teaching sustainability aims to redress this shortcoming by opening doors to education for sustainability in the humanities and social sciences The essays in this collection are richly diverse They investigate ways sustainability education pushes back against traditional disciplines while it simultaneously benefits from the perspectives and skills these fields have to offer They also address big questions such as how to make education meaningful how to examine hidden assumptions underlying current curricula and how a focus on sustainability can answer critics of contemporary higher education The heart of teaching sustainability is reflection and advice on pedagogy From these richly diverse case studies important common themes emerge the symbiotic relationship between classroom and campus operations techniques for transforming the campus itself from merely a setting to a learning laboratory and the potential of community partners for teaching sense of place An equally significant theme is the overlap between sustainability education and emerging best practice in pedagogy Essays on theory and practice individual and collaborative projects service learning and consequential activities all exemplify how sustainability and deep learning go hand and hand Like sustainability itself the volume infuses theory with practical application The contributors demonstrate the ways in which a single course can serve as a powerful change agent for an entire campus how to build bridges between faculty and administrators and even how to move forward on modest budgets The authors themselves constitute a network of advisors Publisher's description

The Limits to Capital in Spain G. Charnock, T. Purcell, R. Ribera-Fumaz, 2014-02-18 Spain is at the epicentre of a crisis that threatens the future of the Eurozone This book explains the deep historical and structural roots of the current crisis in Spain It analyses the nexus between European circuits of financial capital urbanisation and the emergent dynamics of state austerity and popular revolt

Minutes of the Board of School Controllers of the City of Reading Reading (Pa.). Board of school controllers, 1911

Special Papers, 1934

Arab Middle Class, 2014 The present report studies the Arab middle class an important social group that is relatively little understood despite the fundamental role it has played in shaping the economic and social development outcomes in the Arab region This report contributes to the ongoing debate about factors that led to the Arab uprisings and the difficult transitions to democracy that followed the departure of long standing dictators by marking elements influencing middle class allegiances specifically those that weakened their well established alliances with ruling regimes The report is motivated by the conviction on the basis of past development experiences that a new Arab development model can only succeed if the middle class plays a lead role in designing and implementing processes of economic transformation and political transition Studying the middle class is therefore crucial to interpreting the past understanding the present and reading the potential future development prospects of the Arab region This report introduces three novel approaches aimed at charting a path for sustaining empowering and enlarging the middle class The first is related to the measurement of the middle class based on a definition that takes into account both the quantity and quality of their consumption expenditure The second relates to the profiling of the Arab middle class using variables such as education employment and mobility in addition to multidimensional poverty The third novel approach lies in using these results to provide a narrative of the socioeconomic context of the decade leading up to the uprisings from a middle class perspective The report concludes that the empowerment of the Arab middle class could pave a way out of the current development and governance debacle towards an Arab developmental State Publisher s description
