2. How do the two main characters, Alberto and Gerardo, differ in their personalities and beliefs?

3. Describe the journey of the two characters and how it changes them.

4. What are the challenges they face during their journey?

ANSWER KEY

1. The main theme of the movie is the journey of two young men, Alberto and Gerardo, as they travel across South America on motorcycles. The journey is a metaphor for their personal growth and the discovery of their true selves.

2. Alberto is a young man from a wealthy family who is rebellious and seeks adventure. Gerardo is a young man from a poor family who is more practical and focused on his studies. They differ in their personalities and beliefs, but they both share a love for motorcycles and a desire to explore the world.

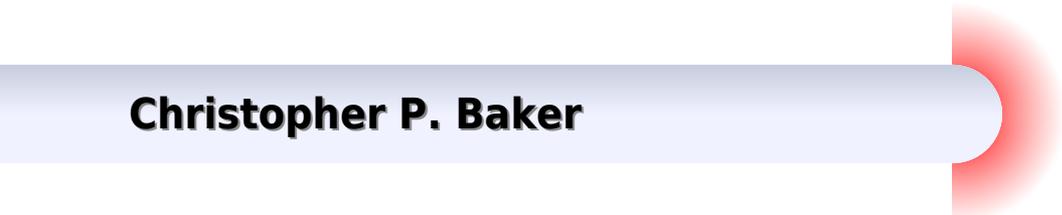

3. The journey of the two characters is a transformative experience. They start as young men with different backgrounds and beliefs, but through their travels, they learn to appreciate each other and the world around them. They discover their true selves and the importance of friendship and adventure.

4. The challenges they face during their journey include physical exhaustion, financial difficulties, and the dangers of traveling in a remote area. They also face the challenge of overcoming their differences and finding common ground.
