Climate Change Action and the Responsibility to Protect Ben L.

Parr,2023-11-29 This book brings together two important fields in the study of international politics and policy climate change adaptation and mitigation climate action and the Responsibility to Protect R2P Both have attracted strong scholarly attention in each of their respective research silos but there is yet to be a strong research push that explores the relationship between the two Filling this gap Ben L Parr argues that the climate action and the R2P agendas share a common goal to protect vulnerable human populations from large scale harm To substantiate this argument Parr reveals where the historical conceptual and operational parallels exist between the two agendas and where and when researchers and practitioners from both camps might work together in practice to achieve their common goal in the challenging years ahead Notably the book builds on recent efforts by Western governments in the UK US and EU to integrate climate action policies into conflict prevention and response policies To achieve this the volume situates a variety of climate action policies alongside the 46 policy options found in the R2P operational framework commonly known as the R2P toolbox across its prevention reaction and rebuilding phases Climate Change Action and the Responsibility to Protect will be of significant interest to policy orientated students and scholars those working at the academic policy interface in the NGO community as well as those working in government and international organisations

The book looks at some of the problems in our world today It is based on extensive research It shows the problems that colonisation brought into the world and how that has permeated into the very fabric of society It shows the beginning of genocides and concentration camps and the present state of both in the 21st century world It also looks at where the greatest threats to the world peace are posed today which countries are still in the throes of genocide what is the connection between eugenics and killing Further it covers information pertinent to our world today but which very few lay people have any concept about We live in this world It is our world We should all make an attempt to care for our world to the best of our ability and avoid dissension and war whenever possible War brings nothing good to anyone but fosters a lot of negativity among nation countries cultures and religions in the world This book is about bringing awareness to the precarious position our world and environment is in If wars continue at this rate the soil air water will be so polluted and poisoned cancers and other unknown diseases rampant that future generations and all living creatures will be horribly affected as in the Mekong Delta with much less poison We must protect our descendants from such folly It is our duty

The Laws of Genocide Thomas W. Simon,2007-06-30 How should we confront hate As political activists we could resort to fighting hate with hate As concerned citizens we could consciously ignore or actively protest hate As committed educators we could put the implements and survivors of hate on display As committed scholars we could resuscitate the idea of evil As humanitarian jurists we could put individual hate mongers on trial Part I of this book makes a case for making the maximum use of reason to deal with hate This means that we should actively debate those who promote hate Further as a close look at the history of applying law to incidents of hate and violence illustrates the courtroom proves to be an excellent place to demonstrate the virtues of applying the tools of reason not to global evils but to the grave injustices of the world In Part II Simon demonstrates the power of legal analysis in enhancing our understanding of genocide probably the worst injustice imaginable A close examination of each purported element of the crime of genocide redirects misguided turns taken by international jurists Jacket

Evoking Genocide Adam Jones,2009 Evoking Genocide compiles more than sixty short essays written by leading scholars and activists in the field of genocide studies These authors pay eloquent tribute to the works of art and media that influenced their engagement with genocide and crimes against humanity The subjects include books and stories films songs drawings documents monuments sculptures personal testimonies and even a Lego set In an accessible and often deeply personal way contributors explore their own relationships with the works in question Edited by Adam Jones recently selected as one of fifty key thinkers in Holocaust and genocide studies Evoking Genocide makes an important contribution to the study of the art and culture of mass atrocity

Genocide in the Middle East Hannibal Travis,2010 Genocide in the Middle East describes the genocide of the Armenians Greeks and Assyrians of the Ottoman Empire in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries of the Kurds and other persons living under Saddam Hussein in northern Iraq in the late 1980s and of the Dinka Nuba Fur Masalit and Zaghawa peoples of Sudan from the 1970s to the present It situates these crimes in their historical context as outgrowths of intolerant religious traditions imperialism and the rise of the nation state Cold War insurgencies and counterinsurgencies and the global competition for resources and markets at the expense of indigenous peoples This requires a more thorough investigation of the case law on genocide than has been attempted in the literature on genocide to date including detailed accounts of the prosecutions of the leaders of the Ottoman Empire after World War I of Saddam Hussein and other Iraqi officials after Operation Iraqi Freedom and of President Omar Hassan al Bashir and other leaders of Sudan by the International Criminal Court Finally the book explores emerging problems of genocidal terrorism cultural genocide and structural genocide due to starvation disease and displacement The field of genocide studies has grown rapidly in recent years fueled by interest in the Armenian genocide the wars in the former Yugoslavia and Iraq and the widespread massacres in southern Sudan and Darfur While several comparative studies of the Armenian genocide the Holocaust and other genocides have been published none of them focuses on genocide in the Middle East and North Africa since the nineteenth century This book provides a comprehensive history of genocide in the broader Islamic world with a particular focus on the twentieth century It is of interest to general readers undergraduates graduate students academics journalists and legal professionals and will be useful as a text for courses on International Law International Criminal Law Law and Religion Middle East Studies International Relations Public Policy Criminal Justice or World History The comprehensive research is breath takingly evident This historical account of the lesser know genocidal conflicts is incredibly revealing Perhaps the best thing one could say about this book is that the familiar adage Those who ignore history are bound to repeat it reverberates throughout this intensely engaging volume ASIL UN21 Newsletter This ambitious book in its research and coverage tells a sorry tale of mankind s inhumanity and intolerance over millennia of genocidal deeds and rhetoric A fast moving narrative reaches from biblical times to Darfur describing tragic events accompanied by selective quotations from their participants and observers Genocide may be a recently invented term but its occurrences based on a variety of causes and reasons seem to have been a deep part of the human experience of group interactions Henry Steiner Professor of Law Emeritus Harvard Law School and co author International Human Rights in Context Law Politics Morals Oxford and New York Oxford University Press 3d ed 2007 In Genocide in the Middle East Hannibal Travis breaks new ground in genocide studies by unveiling the full panoply of genocidal processes in the Middle East and West Asia as no previous scholar has But he does much more in terms of its twentieth and twenty first century coverage this is simply the most expansive detailed and up to date history of genocide we possess Adam Jones Associate Professor Political Science University of British Columbia Okanagan and author of Genocide A Comprehensive Introduction London Routledge 2006 Professor Travis study of genocide and the contribution he makes for a better understanding of the Assyrian one is an invaluable event This is not a book of sociology but of historical review and analysis As such it deserves the highest of accolades Journal of Assyrian Academic Studies Holocaust Studies ,2007 Symposium ,2009 Weapons & Warfare Salem Press,2010 This work features 140 chronologically arranged overviews of the history of weaponry and military tactics from ancient times to the present global age Originally published in 2002 Weapons and Warfare is designed to meet the needs of students seeking information about weaponry tactics and models of warfare from ancient times to the present worldwide Written with the needs of students and general readers in mind the articles contained in this set present clear discussions of the topics explaining any terms or references that may be unclear The focus on the technical and strategic development of weapons and tactics more than on a narrative chronological history of events allows students of history political science science and technology alike to gain a broad understanding of the technological and strategic advances made over time and geography The new third volume adds the essential dimension of placing these topics in broad social cultural and ethical contexts Approximately 140 topics arranged chronologically and thematically with volume 1 Ancient and Medieval covering weapons and strategies from ancient times to 1500 volume 2 The Modern Era covering weapons and strategies from approximately 1500 to the present and volume 3 Warfare Cultural and Concepts providing valuable overviews of the way warfare weapons and military history have been expressed socially politically and in the arts Each essay ranges from 1 500 words to 7 000 words The first two volumes open with overviews of major weapons groups for example in volume 1 Clubs Maces and Slings Sieges and Siegecraft in volume 2 Swords Daggers and Bayonets Rockets Missiles and Nuclear Weapons followed by chronologically arranged sections covering major historical periods and regions of the world and their contributions to military weapons technologies and strategies Volume three touches on all sociocultural and political aspects of culture society science ethics and basic behind the battlefield theories strategies and policies The essays in this set are organized into three essay types Weapons overview articles are organized with sections on Nature and Use and Development of each weapons type The geographically arranged warfare articles feature sections on Political Considerations where relevant and on Military Achievement Weapons Uniforms and Armor Military Organization Doctrine Strategy and Tactics Warfare articles also feature a section on the primary sources from which historians base their observations and evaluates the best sources for understanding the warfare of the period Culture concept overviews new approach warfare and weaponry from several different perspectives sociological geographical cultural ritual political ethical religious tactical and strategic Disciplinary Spaces Andrea Fischer-Tahir, Sophie Wagenhofer, 2017 This volume looks at territories such as reservations model villages and collective towns as the spatial materialization of forced assimilation and progress These disciplinary spaces were created in order to disempower and alter radically the behavior of people who were perceived as ill suited to fit into hegemonic imaginations of the nation since the 19th century Comparing examples from the Americas Australia North and East Africa Central Europe as well as West and Central Asia the book not only considers the acts and legitimizing narrations of ruling actors but highlights the agency of the subaltern who are often misrepresented as passive victims of violent assimilation strategies Criminal Law Forum ,2015 Michigan State Journal of International Law ,2013 Michigan Journal of International Law ,2013
