Every Picture Tells A Story Report:

Comparative Perspectives on Gender Violence Rashmi Goel, Leigh Goodmark, 2015 The United States has exported its law on gender violence without regard to effectiveness or cultural context and without asking about efforts to combat gender violence in the rest of the world This book answers that question by surveying the work being done around the world to eradicate gender violence

Resolving Family Conflicts Jane Murphy, 2017-03-02 Over the past two decades virtually all areas of family law have undergone major doctrinal and theoretical changes from the definition of marriage to the financial and parenting consequences of divorce to the legal construction of parenthood An equally important set of changes has transformed the resolution of family disputes This paradigm shift in family conflict resolution has reshaped the practice of family law and has fundamentally altered the way in which disputing families interact with the legal system Moreover the changes have important implications for the way that family law is understood and taught This volume examines the contours of this paradigm shift in family conflict resolution and explores its implications for family law scholarship and practice The interdisciplinary compilation includes contributions from lawyers legal academics social scientists and mental health professionals As the articles in the volume demonstrate the transformation in family conflict resolution holds considerable promise for disputing families but it also raises a number of challenges These challenges include concerns about the institutional competence of courts the surrender of fact finding and decision making to individuals without legal training the loss of autonomy and privacy for family members subject to continuing court oversight and the disjunction between problem solving justice and authoritative legal norms By exploring both the promise of the new paradigm and its potential pitfalls this volume engages family law scholars and offers insights to judges practitioners and policy makers responsible for serving families in conflict

The Family in Law Archana Parashar, Francesca Dominello, 2017-04-20 This book challenges conventional boundaries of family law providing a solid foundation and edge to students understanding of the topic

Chaos at the Crossroads William John Stapleton, 2013-04 In 2003 the then Prime Minister of Australia John Howard announced an inquiry into family law and joint custody otherwise known as shared parenting Family law was the country's single most controversial area of law It was also the layperson's most common point of interaction with the legal and judicial system The Family Court had been a source of individual pain and public controversy since its foundation in 1975 The announcement received front page coverage and delighted of father's groups nationwide The Prime Minister declared that he was drawn to the notion of shared parenting an issue on which the previously marginalized disenfranchised and often ridiculed fathers groups had been campaigning on for years The reform of family law was a tipping point issue with an increasingly large body of disgruntled litigants and disenfranchised fathers Australia's politicians faced a significant degree of discontent anger and outrage from their constituents 90 pages 26 000 words

The Bioscope, 1914 Measuring the Networked Nonprofit Beth Kanter, Katie Delahaye Paine, 2012-10-09 The tools nonprofits need to measure the impact of their social media Having a social media measurement plan and approach can no longer be an after thought It is a requirement of success As nonprofits refine their social media practice their boards are expecting reports showing results As funders provide dollars to support programs that include social media they too want to see results This book offers the tools and strategies needed for nonprofits that need reliable and measurable data from their social media efforts Using these tools will not only improve a nonprofit s decision making process but will produce results driven metrics for staff and stakeholders A hands on resource for nonprofit professionals who must be able to accurately measure the results of their social media ventures Written by popular nonprofit blogger Beth Kanter and measurement expert Katie Delahaye Paine Filled with tools strategies and illustrative examples that are highly accessible for nonprofit professionals This important resource will give savvy nonprofit professionals the information needed to produce measurable results for their social media
