Michelin Fleet Solutions From selling tires to selling kilometers

Case Abstract

Michelin, a worldwide leader in the tire industry, launched in 2000 a comprehensive tire-management solution offer for large European transportation companies, called Michelin Fleet Solutions (MFS). With this new business model, the company ventured into selling kilometers – instead of selling tires. This decision moves the strongly product-driven firm into the new world of services and solutions. The shift is intuitively appealing, and it provides Michelin with an opportunity to differentiate itself in the tire business. After 3 years, however, expansion is far below expectations and profitability is terrible – despite the outside help of a strategy consulting firm. The case presents the decision point in 2003, whereby MFS's future has to be decided. Should Michelin seek to further develop this solution offer, and try to repackaging the offer yet another time? Or was it just a passing fad that should be abandoned?

This case investigates the difficulties that industrial groups face when they transition from selling products to providing service. It enables participants to reflect on the following issues: What's industrial groups' rationale for moving towards solutions? What kind of business model reconfiguration does it imply? How does moving to solutions raise multiple challenges throughout the organization (e.g. in terms of sales force management, risk management, channel relationships etc.)?

* This case study was written by Chloé Renaudt, HEC 2006 and PhD Student at HEC, under the supervision of Frédéric Dubanez, Dumas Chair of Social Business/Firm & Poverty and Wolfgang Ullgast, EDF Chair in Marketing/New Business Models in the Energy Industry, both Associate Professors at HEC Paris. The case was written as a basis for class discussion rather than to illustrate either effective or ineffective handling of an administrative situation. We would like to thank Stéphane Marnette at Michelin for his assistance and support. Some data have been modified for reasons of confidentiality.

Clean Winners

Goutam Challagalla, Frederic Dalsace, 2026-03-24 Despite massive investments sustainable business still isn t very profitable for most companies Here s a fresh approach for resetting sustainability for customer value and profitability Store aisles packed with products labeled environmentally friendly Businesses scrambling to respond to stakeholder demands that they make their operations sustainable Ads touting green credentials for all kinds of enterprises For a long time now this has been the market landscape we ve lived in with companies such as Unilever leading the way and creating pressure for others to follow suit But the uncomfortable truth is that after years of investment in sustainable products and services most companies still aren t seeing the payoff not financially not in value for customers and not in real environmental and social impact Why not As IMD professors Goutam Challagalla and Fr d ric Dalsace show in this eye opening and practical book the shortfall is due to a strategic misalignment and a misunderstanding of what actually drives customers purchase decisions The authors flip conventional sustainability strategy on its head instead of companies asking How can we make our offerings more sustainable they should be asking How can we use sustainability as a catalyst to improve the performance of our products make them more affordable or both Viewed this way sustainability is an intrinsic value generating element of an offering rather than a costly add on The authors call companies that understand this insight John Deere Michelin Schneider Electric Nespresso Reckitt and others clean winners or Resonators With wide ranging and instructive stories they show how Resonators use sustainability to increase customer value and generate robust profits Offering practical frameworks tools and tactics Clean Winners is your essential guide to reimagining your sustainability strategy

Seminar paper from the year 2023 in the subject Business economics Review of Business Studies grade 10 Hamburg School of Business Administration gGmbH language English abstract Michelin is a well known French tire manufacturer with a global representation They produce high quality tires for various vehicles including cars trucks motorcycles and bicycles Michelin is also known for its Michelin Guide a rating system for restaurants and hotels The transition from selling tires to selling kilometers for whole fleets is a strategic move by Michelin to move from selling tires to offering a complete mobility solution This transition involves customers receiving tires as a service TaaS where they pay based on distance driven rather than buying and servicing tires independently And while Michelin had a clear first mover advantage in the industry at the time 2000 2003 this service still presented some downsides for Michelin Another company that has established this system successfully is the aircraft jet manufacturer Rolls Royce Under the name TotalCare the price is calculated on a fixed per flying hour basis Thus maintained engines are rewarded Advantages are waste reduction efficiency increase and others Among other things Michelin s offer provides advantages such as planning security for the customer in terms of the monthly payment longer tire mileage and less impact on the environment But why was the offer still problematic In this study the analysis of the case studies and further data and references will address the central question Was this strategy successful and should it be extended to private customers At the same time an outlook on possible future developments will be given A short analytical look at the connection to the Car Subscription sector will be taken The Times Index ,1997 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991
