CMA/CFM Review Irvin N. Gleim, Dale L. Flesher, 2002 CFM Review Irvin N. Gleim, Dale L. Flesher, 2001 Australian-Latin American Relations E. Kath, 2016-06-14 Until recently Australia and Latin America were considered irrelevant to one another The prevailing perception in Australia had been that Latin America was too remote disconnected and politically irrelevant to warrant serious scholarly or public attention In recent years this perception has rapidly changed with Australian universities seeking to attract Latin American students new diplomatic relations emerging investment in mining and other business sectors

expanding and a growing fascination in Australia with Latin American food music dance and other forms of popular culture These rapid developments can only properly be understood within the context of broader global transformations underway including shifts in power relations between the Global North and Global South the rise of key Latin American economies major technological developments and ever increasing global interconnectivity This pioneering interdisciplinary book ventures into the new space of Australian Latin American relations exploring multiple dimensions of the rapidly changing landscape within a global context
