

5th Grade Graduation Speech

Good afternoon to everyone, and thank you for coming to Piney Branch Elementary's 5th grade graduation. This event marks the transition of these wonderful children onto the next step of their journey: Who knows if the future president of the United States is standing on this stage at this moment? Maybe you're watching the one to cure cancer, or invent the newest technological innovation smiling up here right now!

We, the faculty and staff at Piney Branch, have very mixed feelings about this event. On one hand, we are absolutely delighted to see these children smiling at you all, ready to face the future. On the other hand, we are sad to see them go. Many of us have known these children since their pre-kindergarten program days – that's seven years! We hope that you will all achieve great things, because we know you can. After all, some of you have spent seven years in our halls. We just ask that you never forget that you came from Piney Branch Elementary, and that you come by and visit us sometime when you're successful and loving your life. This is a home for you all, so please don't forget to keep us informed of the wonderful places you go to next!

This ceremony will recognize each child for their achievements. Many of them have scored consistently well on standardized testing, making this class one of the highest achieving in the entire state. Please give yourselves a round of applause. Children, please look at your parents and give them a round of applause to thank them for being here today and supporting you. We are truly very pleased and happy at your progress in elementary school, and on behalf of the faculty and staff of Piney Branch Elementary, I wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Underserved Patrons in University Libraries Julia C. Skinner,Melissa Gross,2021-01-12 This practical and research based volume focuses on how libraries can meet the needs of underserved patrons in college and university libraries with an emphasis on those facing trauma abuse and discrimination While university libraries strive to meet the needs of all students some groups have traditionally been overlooked This volume engages with those underserved populations on college campuses with an emphasis on those facing trauma abuse and discrimination It brings a variety of authorial voices to discuss different aspects of that service and to share current research related to underserved populations in libraries This combination supports research in LIS and beyond while offering concrete ways for service providers to make a difference in the lives of their patrons Editors Skinner and Gross have both conducted extensive research in ethically meeting patron needs They and their contributors are keenly aware of the complex and interwoven considerations that inform such service such as patron desire for confidentiality accompanied by an urgent need for assistance This volume is committed to sharing diverse voices in the field and to exploring the interrelationship between theoretical findings and practical applications all in the service of underserved patrons

Boy Writers Ralph Fletcher, 2023-10-10 Writing test scores indicate that boys have fallen far behind girls across the grades In general boys don't enjoy writing as much as girls What's wrong How can we do a better job of creating boy friendly classrooms so their voices can be heard In Boy Writers Reclaiming Their Voices Ralph Fletcher draws upon his years of experience as staff developer children's book author and father of four boys He also taps the insights from dozens of writing teachers around the US and abroad Boy Writers asks teachers to imagine the writing classroom from a boy's perspective and consider specific steps we might take to create stimulating classrooms for boys Topic choice emerges as a crucial issue The subjects many boys like to write about war weapons outlandish fiction zany or bathroom humor often do not get a warm reception from teachers Fletcher argues that we must widen the circle and give boys more choice if we want to engage them as writers How We must begin by recognizing boys and the world in which they live Boy Writers explores important questions such as What subjects are boy writers passionate about and what motivates them as writers Why do boys like to incorporate violence into their stories and how much should be allowed Why do we so often misread and misunderstand the humor boys include in their stories In addition the book looks at how handwriting can hamstring boy writers and how drawing may help welcoming boy friendly writing genres in our classrooms ways to improve our conferring with boys and more Each chapter begins with a thorough discussion of a topic and ends with a highly practical section titled What can I do in my classroom Boy Writers does not advocate promoting the interests of boys at the expense of girls Rather it argues that developing sensitivity to the unique facets of boy writers will help teachers better address the needs of all their students
