

Autobiography Of A College Student

3 pages | 580 words

My name is Gelliza Z. Quiambao, and I am currently in college studying education. I was born on 12th of September year 1996, four o'clock in the afternoon, in Jose Payumo Memorial Hospital. My parents are Gilbert and Josephine and I have two brothers who are Gil Joseph and Gianni.

I started studying when I was three. My grandparents are the ones who served as my babysitter since my parents weren't home for work, so my granddad enrolled me in a Daycare Center. You may not believe this but my grandma told me that I always sleep and cry in school.

After that, my parents enrolled me in Kindergarten then to Elementary. I was only five years old when I was on the first grade. Had to say, I was the youngest but I'm subsequent. My elementary days are incredibly awesome. I gained many friends; I achieved honors and awards, academic and sports, specifically chess. It's been quite jaded studying six years on the same school but it's totally fine with me because I have friends to laugh with, have fun with, and learn with.

In 2008, I graduated from elementary and became a high school freshman in Bataan Peninsula State University. It's great that I found true friends that same year, and it's quite funny how I always wanted a sister and God gave me nine super cool and amazing friends that actually treated me like a sister. I had so much fun with them. We went hiking on a mountain. It's really unforgettable because we took a ride on a horse.

It's my sophomore year in 2009, and the best moment that I remembered back there is when we ditched class. Yeah, I know it's not a really good thing to do but, best moments come from worst ideas, right? We cleaned the faculty room as our punishment. We did it for three months.

In 2010, I fell in love with music. It's like, my world revolves around music. There's something about the songs that I can somehow relate myself into the lyrics. I learned so much from it. Also this year is when I fell in love with a boy. Honestly, it wasn't a pretty story. I fell deeply in love with him then when we broke up; it's like my worst nightmare ever. But I learned that maybe we're not really meant to be together. Then, I realized that the fact between 'boy love' and 'boy hate' is the belief that whatever happens, I'll be fine.

Good friends, competitive teachers and one wonderful family are the ones who mold me for who I am today. Everything good I have inside of me, I get from them. I experienced lots of challenges that test my skills and personality. All those challenges and problems that I've been through leaves a wonderful lesson. Good days gave me happiness, bad days gave me experiences, which are both essential to life. Success keeps me growing and failures make me humble.

Right now, I'm studying very...

Writing Lessons Using the Multiple Intelligences Judy Story Griswold, 2002-02 Haruki Murakami Matthew C. Strecher, Paul L. Thomas, 2016-03-22 Japanese writer Haruki Murakami has achieved incredible popularity in his native country and world wide as well as rising critical acclaim Murakami in addition to receiving most of the major literary awards in Japan has been nominated several times for the Nobel Prize Yet his relationship with the Japanese literary community proper known as the Bundan has not been a particularly friendly one One of Murakami s central and enduring themes is a persistent warning not to suppress our fundamental desires in favor of the demands of society at large Murakami s writing over his career reveals numerous recurring motifs but his message has also evolved creating a catalogue of works that reveals Murakami to be a challenging author Many of those challenges lie in Murakami s blurring of genre as well as his rich blending of Japanese and Western mythologies and styles all while continuing to offer narratives that attract and captivate a wide range of readers Murakami is as e Kenzabur once contended not a Japanese writer so much as a global one and as such he merits a central place in the classroom in order to confront readers and students but to be challenged as well Reading teaching and studying Murakami serves well the goal of rethinking this world It will open new lines of inquiry into what constitutes national literatures and how some authors in the era of blurred national and cultural boundaries seek now to transcend those boundaries and pursue a truly global mode of expression

An Analysis of Writing Harold P. Scott, 1923 Life Writing Winifred Bryan Horner, 1997 In readings that move from personal diaries and personal letters through autobiography and biography that assumes a public readership and finally to the essay the reader is led through an ever widening audience Starting with pieces that draw entirely on the writer s life to biography requiring research into another person's life the reader moves from subjective to objective experience and finally to the essay that attempts to put that experience into a larger context The selections are followed by Musings which suggest features of the writing that the reader might imitate and recommendations for writing Connections presents ways in which individual pieces might be paired with others to make interesting comparisons and to generate other writing ideas A range of familiar and unfamiliar selections are organized from the subjective to the objective and become increasingly difficult They present a wide range of writing styles to allow readers to become comfortable with many styles In addition these selections represent a variety of cultures and historical periods to give readers an appreciation of other cultures and a sense of history A valuable book for any reader who wishes to improve their writing skills by reading a variety of selections by a range of writers The AWP Official Guide to Writing Programs David W.
