Rube Tube Sara K. Eskridge, 2018-11-30 Historian Sara Eskridge examines television's rural comedy boom in the 1960s and the political, social, and economic factors that made these shows a perfect fit for CBS. The network, nicknamed the Communist Broadcasting System during the Red Scare of the 1940s, saw its image hurt again in the 1950s with the quiz show scandals and a campaign against violence in westerns. When a rival network introduced rural-themed programs to cater to the growing southern market, CBS latched onto the trend and soon reestablished itself as the Country Broadcasting System. Its rural comedies dominated the ratings throughout the decade, attracting viewers from all parts of the country. With fascinating discussions of The Andy Griffith Show, The Beverly Hillbillies, Petticoat Junction, and other shows, Eskridge reveals how the southern image was used to both entertain and reassure Americans in the turbulent 1960s. TV Guide, 2007

Southern Cultures Harry L. Watson, Jocelyn Neal, 2014-11-21 The Winter 2014 Issue brings us duels and Dashboard Poets, eels and faux villages, a beloved television icon, interviews with liberal hero Walter Mondale and conservative activist Jack Kershaw, Civil War battlefields, old monuments, and more. From familiar faces and famous legends to humble commemorations and invented histories, we explore the tensions between preservation and progress that have forged the region as we know it.

President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, 1947 Christianity Today, 1990 Activists under 30 Shirley R. Steinberg, 2018-07-17 This unique book is divided into two sections. The first section highlights specific international youth activists, their biographies, work, and accomplishments. The second section is a collection of work by youth who address their own activism, goals, identities, and needs. Commentaries by teachers, community workers, and facilitators compliment the entries, creating a unique intergenerational and multi-faceted volume. The book will serve to fill a gap in teacher education, highlighting and listening to youth themselves, who the editor contends should be intimately involved in their own education and futures. A new model for teacher education, this book allows teachers to understand that youth must have and demand a voice in the determination of their lives and futures. Previous work with youth tends to deal with them as a problem to be solved, a group to be managed. This book insists that youth are viable citizens and create a voice which is heard internationally. Activists under 30 is the first book of its kind to be addressed to youth, teachers, parents, and activists. It reminds us that youth are our most valuable resource and insists we incorporate them, invite them, and listen to them. The Spectator, 1910 The Spectator Handy Guide to Standard and Special Contracts, Premium Rates, Non-forfeiture Values, Annuities and War Risk Provisions, 1953 The Spectator Handy Guide to Standard and Special Life Insurance Contracts, Non-forfeiture Values, Useful to the Life Underwriter, 1953 Video Rating Guide for Libraries, 1995 Motion Picture Performers Mel Schuster, 1976 The Mathematical Playground Alissa S.
