SECTION-A

READING SKILLS (20 MARKS)

1. Read the following text.

(10 m)

- (1) The story of Grace Darling has captured imaginations for over a hundred years. Grace was an ordinary young woman who was boldly and unequivocally labelled a 'heroine' after the events of a stormy night in 1838. Being the daughter of a lighthouse keeper and having lived in various lighthouses, Grace was used to the harsh and dangerous environment around her. However, she had never experienced real danger until the night of the 7th September 1838 — the night that she entered the history books.
- (2) On the 5th September the steamship SS Forfarshire set off from Hull to Dundee. On board the vessel were 60 crew members and passengers as well as containers of valuable cargo. Disaster struck the next day when the ship's boiler began to leak and by the morning of the 7th September the engine had stopped. The Forfarshire began to drift. Suddenly at about 4 a.m., there was a thunderous crash as the steamship collided with Big Harcar Rock. The impact was sudden and there was no time for the passengers to be called from their cabins and into smaller boats that would have taken them to safety. Within 15 minutes, the ship had broken in two. The sea waves pounded relentlessly at the fragile remnants of the ship until it had been reduced to a disintegrating wreck. The back half of the boat was swept away by the billowing waves and was quickly overpowered. The 48 people on board lost their fight for survival and were tragically consumed by the raging sea.
- (3) That night, Grace Darling and her parents were in the lighthouse. They knew a fierce storm was blowing and they watched as huge waves battered their lighthouse walls. Grace who knew the sea intimately, who, within minutes of being in the sea's presence could tell the mood it was in, who read the signs and predicted its behaviour, had already sensed that something sinister was brewing. As a result, Grace stood by the lighthouse window that night and watched nervously as her long-time companion transformed into an unrecognisable and brutal force of death. It wasn't long before Grace saw some desperate and shadowy figures waving, their cries inaudible above the deafening crash of the savage sea.
- (4) Grace's father knew that the local lifeboat service would not be able to launch their ship because of the brutal conditions; if these people were to have any chance of survival then he and Grace were their only hope. Armed with blankets to warm any survivors, William and Grace took their tiny rowing boat and went into the vast and wild sea. Each wave appeared bigger than the last and the force of the rain stung their cheeks. It was almost impossible to see where they were heading and the boat was being thrown off course constantly. They knew the area around the Farne Islands was notorious for being a ship's graveyard and yet they rowed with determination towards almost certain death.
