Ess Paper 23:

Social Security as a Human Right Eibe H. Riedel, 2006-11-07 Article 9 of the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights on the right to social security is the shortest article in the entire Covenant and for that reason alone highly abstract and vague A comprehensive analysis of the article 9 is still lacking not least because it is widely regarded as a Pandora's box better not to be opened Experience has shown that the quality of the state reporting procedure is greatly improved once the Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights has adopted a General Comment Thus it seems very desirable to close this gap For the reason an International Expert Workshop on the Right to Social Security was held in April 2005 at the German Institute for Human Rights whose purpose was to highlight specific issues of the right to social security which should be addressed by the Committee when drafting a General Comment on article 9 The results of this workshop are published in this volume providing an insight into the current challenges on social security as a human right

Abstractions of Evidence in the Study of Manuscripts and Early Printed Books Joseph A. Dane, 2016-12-05 In this book Joseph Dane critiques the use of material evidence in studies of manuscript and printed books by delving into accepted notions about the study of print culture He questions the institutional and ideological presuppositions that govern medieval studies descriptive bibliography and library science Dane begins by asking what is the relation between material evidence and the abstract statements made about the evidence ultimately he asks how evidence is to be defined The goal of this book is to show that evidence from texts and written objects often becomes twisted to support pre-existing arguments and that generations of bibliographers have created narratives of authorship printing reading and editing that reflect romantic notions of identity growth and development The first part of the book is dedicated to medieval texts and authorship materials include Everyman Chaucer's Legend of Good Women the Anglo-Norman Le Seint Resurrection and Adam de la Helle's Le Jeu de Robin et Marion The second half of the book is concerned with abstract notions about books and scholarly definitions about what a book actually is chapters include studies of basic bibliographical concepts Ideal Copy and the application of such a notion in early editions of Chaucer the combination of manuscript and printing in the books of Colard Mansion and finally examples of the organization of books by an early nineteenth-century book collector Leander Van Ess This study is an important contribution to debates about the nature of bibliography and the critical institutions that have shaped its current practice

The Industrial Arts Index, 1930 The Economic and Business History of Occupied Japan Thomas French, 2017-08-07 The Occupation era 1945-1952 witnessed major change in Japan and the beginnings of its growth from the ashes of defeat towards its status as a developmental model for much of the world The period arguably saw the sowing of the seeds of the post-war flowering of what some term the postwar Japanese economic miracle However some scholars dispute this position and argue that the Occupation's policies and impacts actually hindered Japan's recovery This volume addresses this question and others surrounding the business and economic history of this crucial period The chapters presented in The Economic and Business History of Occupied Japan are authored by major scholars of the Occupation from the U S Japan and Europe The chapters are divided into three sections Planning reform and recovery Industries under the Occupation and Legacies of the Occupation era Following an introduction focusing on the historiographical background the first section examines zaibatsu dissolution and its significance the role of Japanese businessmen within the Occupation s reforms the crucial impact of Japan s postwar Materials Crisis and the impact of reform at the local level in Hokkaid Part two looks at a number of individual industries and their development during the era including the fishing automotive and cotton spinning industries The final section looks at the human impact of the changes of the initial postwar years including the reintegration of repatriates into the Japanese labour force and the impact of changing working patterns on society and family life This book covers a key period of the economic and business history of Japan and presents numerous new approaches and original contributions to the scholarship of the Occupation era It will be of interest to scholars of modern Japan economic history business history development studies and postwar U S Japan relations
