Facing Mount Kenya:

Facing Mount Kenya Kenyatta, Jomo, 2015-01-31 Facing Mount Kenya first published in 1938 is a monograph on the life and customs of the Gikuyu people of central Kenya prior to their contact with Europeans. It is unique in anthropological literature for it gives an account of the social institutions and religious rites of an African people permeated by the emotions that give to customs and observances their meaning. It is characterised by both insight and a tinge of romanticism. The author proud of his African blood and ways of thought takes the reader through a thorough and clear picture of Gikuyu life and customs painting an almost utopian picture of their social norms and the sophisticated codes by which all aspects of the society were governed. This book is one of a kind capturing and documenting traditions fast disappearing. It is therefore a must read for all who want to learn about African culture.

Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1962-02-12 With an Introduction by Bronislaw Malinowski Facing Mount Kenya is a central document of the highest distinction in anthropological literature an invaluable key to the structure of African society and the nature of the African mind. Facing Mount Kenya is not only a formal study of life and death work and play sex and the family in one of the greatest tribes of contemporary Africa but a work of considerable literary merit. The very sight and sound of Kikuyu tribal life presented here are at once comprehensive and intimate and as precise as they are compassionate.

Early Keswick Theology of Sanctification in the Socio-ethical Life of the East African Revival Movement Robinson Kariuki Mwangi, 2025-03-31 Sanctification is an essential part of every Christian life. But how do its differing theologies shape our Christian walk and wider socio-ethical contexts? Grounded in the East Africa Revival Movement (EARM) this work seeks to answer how the Keswick theology of sanctification contributes to the socio-ethical understanding of walking in the light and consequently influences the mission of the Anglican Church in the Mount Kenya region. Dr Robinson Kariuki Mwangi uses careful exegetical analysis to understand the biblical roots of revival and calls us to action in showing what our faith stands for integrating practical theology with pastoral practice. Scholars of theology and lived Christianity will find the observations in this work informative for further study.

The Presbyterian Church of East Africa Evanson N. Wamagatta, 2009 With over four million members the Presbyterian Church of East Africa PCEA is one of the major denominations in Kenya It was established in 1946 after the Gospel Missionary Society GMS from the United States of America and the Church of Scotland Mission CSM from Scotland merged The two missionary societies had been working independently in central Kenya since 1898 Consequently the GMS became the only mission in Kenya that failed to leave behind its own functioning self propagating self governing and self supporting church with links to its American mother church The Presbyterian Church of East Africa is therefore a study of the missionary work of the GMS from its inception in 1895 to 1946 when it merged with the CSM in order to establish why the mission gave up the struggle to establish its own church when victory seemed imminent The book also uses the GMS as a case study to analyze not only how Christian missions in colonial Africa struggled to win souls for Jesus Christ but also some of the major problems that they encountered and how they tried to solve them
