

Fahrenheit 451: Part One

The Hearth and the Salamander

- Use this handout to discuss Part One of F451.
- Of course, discuss anything else you might discover that is not listed here.

1. All protagonists must change in a story. Montag is our protagonist. What events help him to change? Who helps him to change?

The first event that helped him change was meeting Clarisse. Clarisse asked some questions that caught him off guard and made him re-think a lot about society.

2. Analyze the scenes with Clarisse and compare/contrast them to Mildred: who they are as characters, their actions, the setting they are in, etc.

Clarisse is a 17-year-old girl that is curious about life. She sees the world for its beauty and because of this she is an outsider from society. Mildred is Montag's wife, she is a closed off woman and denies any feelings she might feel. She only stays home and watches TV and keeps up with society's rules.

3. Technology plays an important role in all parts of this novel. Discuss its impact on the world in Part One: the characters, the government of a futuristic United States, etc. What do you think Ray Bradbury was concerned about with such technology?

The society/technology role is almost like a dystopian theme. In the beginning, you see Guy Montag meet Clarisse. She has a different view on society and the world, something far different from how everyone else in society is supposed to view it. After seeing how Clarisse's thoughts were formed, it affected Montag strangely. He was left quite speechless and devoured in his own curiosity.

4. Bradbury utilizes various symbolic elements in the novel. What symbolism can you find in Part One?

The title of Part One is symbolic itself. I had to do research to find out the meaning because I was curious as to why that was the title. Hearth is the floor of a fireplace by definition and salamanders are also associated with fire, but specifically after reading Part One, the salamander symbolizes the name given to their fire trucks.
