

Fahrenheit 451 Part Three "Burning Bright," Study Questions

Directions: Answer the following questions on the back of your ability. Make certain that your answer reflects your full and thoughtful understanding.

1. Explain the following quote: "Myself, I'm not a book." How is Montag the model of this?

2. How do the characters come to find Montag's job? To which character would you say Montag is most loyal? What evidence can you find to back up your thinking about this?

3. How does Montag (and by extension society as a whole) view the "book" that Montag is charged with burning? How is Montag himself "bookish"? How do the people he charges to burn the "book" react to his appearance as a

4. Why do the other characters react with surprise and concern when they find out that Montag is a "book burner"?

5. Why does the society need something to burn? Explain the importance of "burning Montag."

6. What does the quote, "How different had it all be! How different would it all be!" mean? How do you think the people he had worked with would have reacted? How do you think the people he was working with would have reacted?
